Celebrating 30 years of great early childhood music!

This CD celebrates 30 years of Early Childhood Music with a compilation of some of the best recordings we have made over the years. There is at least one track from each of Kathy’s 17 recordings, starting with Tickles and Tunes in 1994. There are songs, fingerplays, tickles, knee joggles, dances and 2 never before released tracks!

Produced by Ken Whiteley

1. The Most Glorious Day © SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman/Ken Whiteley 2013

I was walking with my dog through a forest on an incredibly beautiful day in November when this song popped into my head. It works well with all the Autumn months but with a bit of creativity it can work with any month.

Chorus: This is the most glorious day, glorious day that I can remember
This is the most glorious day, glorious day in the month of November.

The sun is shining in a sky of blue
The birds are singing as if they knew that … Chorus

A gentle breeze blows through the pines
It makes me think of summertime. Chorus

The squirrels are chattering in the trees
They sound so happy just like me. Chorus

2. I Like to Rise ©SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2007

You can change the actions and ask the children what they like to do in the morning.

I like to rise, I like to rise
In the morning

When the birds sing, the bells ring
The sun through my window’s shining
I like to rise, I like to rise!

I like to stretch
I like to dance
I like to jump
I like to sing

30. Great Big Star traditional, additional verses Kathy Reid-Naiman

I love this song! It was too short so added a couple of verses.
You could add more too… Northern Lights, Falling Stars,
Great Big Dipper…or any of the constellations or celestial sights.

Great big star, way over yonder
Great big star, way over yonder
Great big star, way over yonder
Every little soul is going to shine shine
Every little soul is going to shine shine
All around the heaven’s going to shine shine
All around the heaven’s going to shine shine.

Great big moon
Rainbow rays

Thank You

To all the musicians who helped create this beautiful CD; it was a joy to work with all of you. To Ken, for everything you do, from conception to completion. To Nik, for twiddling the knobs with flying fingers. To Lisette, of blessed memory, and David for your consistently great artwork and cover designs. And to our families – our joy and inspiration! Thank you everyone! Kathy

27. Tall Trees

traditional Australian aboriginal

This is a calming song to sing before telling a story. It works very well as an echo song as well.

Tall trees
Warm fire
Strong wind
Rushing water
I feel it in my body
I feel it in my soul

28. Baby’s Boat

Alice C. D. Riley and Jessie L. Gaynor 1898

Baby’s boat’s a silver moon
Sailing o’er the sky
Sailing o’er a sea of sleep
While the stars go by.

Chorus: Sail, baby, sail far across the sea
Only don’t forget to sail back again to me.
Baby’s fishing for a dream

Fishing near and far
Her line, a silver moonbeam is
Her bait, a silver star. Chorus

29. On My Way to Dream Land

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2001

On my way to dream land on a starry night
I think I see the sandman coming into sight.
I can hear the night birds call, singing soft and low,
I can hear the little creatures bedding down below.

On my way to dream land on a starry night.
On my way to dream land on a starry night
I’ve got my favourite Teddy bear with me for the flight.
With my cozy blanket, I’m tucked in snug and warm,
So I can stay in dreamland until the early morn.
On my way to dream land on a starry night.

Coming home from dreamland at the break of day,
Saying goodbye to all the friends I’ve met along the way.
The morning stars are rising and twinkling out of sight,
The golden sun is coming up to chase away the night.
Coming home from dreamland at the break of day.

3. Mice Tickles traditional

There Was a Little Mouse

The mouse can live anywhere, and then run him up to a ticklish spot.

There was a little mouse
And he lived just there
And when anybody came
He ran right up there!

The Mouse and The Cheese

I like to pretend I have some cheese and I give it to the children, then tickle the last one while the mouse runs up into her hole in the wall.

There was a little mouse
And she found a piece of cheese.
And she gave a piece to this one,
And she gave a piece to this one,
And she gave a piece to this one,
And she gave a piece to this one,
And she gave a piece to this one,
And she ran through a hole in the wall.

The Little Mice

I use this song as tickle. First, I creep my fingers along baby’s arm, then I ‘stalk’ them, then I scurry them around. This is also used as a game with one child being the cat who has to find the ‘mice’ who are the other kids.

1. The little mice go creeping, creeping, creeping.
   The little mice go creeping, all through the house.
2. The big black cat goes stalking, stalking, stalking.
   The big black cat goes stalking, all through the house.
3. The little mouse goes scampering, scampering, scampering.
   The little mouse goes scampering, all through the house.

4. Motorcycle Ride

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2015

When my kids were small Arnie used to play the motorcycle game with them. He would put them on his knees and turn on the motorcycle and bounce them to gales of laughter. When he started doing it with our grandson I decided to write a rhyme to go with it.

Turn the key…vroom vroom vroom
Open the throttle VROOM VROOM, VROOM
Now we're ready for a motorcycle ride
On the road we go side to side
On the hills we go up and down
On the curves we go round and round
And round and round slow down and Stop!
Now turn the key…vroom vroom vroom
Open the throttle VROOM VROOM, VROOM
Now we're ready for a motorcycle ride
Go side to side, Up and down
Round and round and whoops – fall down!

5. Jack's House

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2003

The inspiration for this came from the traditional rhyme, 'This is the house that Jack Built'.

Spoken: This is the house that Jack built
With windows walls and a floor,
A roof to keep the rain out
And a peep hole in the door.
This is the key to Jack's house
It opens up the lock
But if you haven't got the key
You're going to have to knock.

Now, Jack has built a little house
He's built it on a hill
And if he hasn't moved away
I guess he lives there still.
He's built it for his lovely wife
Two children, a dog and a cat
And when the house was finished
He put out the welcome mat. Chorus:

This is the house that Jack built
With windows walls and a floor,
A roof to keep the rain out
And a peep hole in the door
This is the key to Jack's house
It opens up the lock
But if you haven't got the key...
You're going to have to knock.
Knock, knock, knock, knock
You're going to have to knock.

Now Jack has built a little house
Put carpets on the floor
Put curtains on the windows
And he's painted the walls and doors.
He's built a cozy fireplace to keep them from the cold
And there they live quite happily
Or so I have been told. Chorus:

I Want Someone To Buy Me A Pony anonymous

This knee bounce is a great song for galloping around the room

I want someone to buy me a pony,
Jig jog jig jog jigga jog gee.
Not too fat and not too boney,
Jig jog jig jog jigga jog gee.
For I want to go for a ride.
All around the countryside,
With a Jig jog jig jog Jig jog jig jog
Jig jog jigga jog gee.
With a Jig jog jig jog Jig jog jig jog
Jig jog jigga jog gee.

26. A Smooth Road to London Town traditional

This is a good lap joggling song.
A smooth road to London town [joggle child gently on your knee]
A smooth road to London town
The road goes up and the road goes down [raise and lower knees]
A smooth road to London town
But.... by and by we come to a dell [pause, then bounce child a little faster]
There the roads are not so swell
A bumpy road, a bumpy road, a bumpy road to London town
A smooth road to London town [joggle child gently on your knee]
A smooth road to London town
The road goes up and the road goes down [raise and lower knees]
A smooth road to London town
But …. by and by we come to a wood [pause, then bounce a lot faster]
And there the roads are not so good
A rough road, a rough road, a rough road to London town.

23. Glory to the Mountain traditional USA

For all ages. Formation: circle with one person (the king) on the outside.

6 times through

All circle left while the king circles right along the outside.

We'll all sing glory to the mountain
The mountain is so high
It reaches to the sky
And it's one, two, three follow me.

(The king taps 3 people and as he taps they leave the ring to follow him).

We'll all sing glory to the mountain
The mountain is so high
It reaches to the sky
And it's one, two, three follow me.

Last time: And we'll all bow to the mountain. When there are 3 or less left in the middle, they become the mountain. Everyone stops and bows to the mountain.

24. We're jumping!

©SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2018

Face a partner holding both hands while jumping and following the actions. After bowing to your partner move around the room looking for a new friend to start the dance again.

We're jumping and jumping and here we go,
Shake your head nod your head and tap your toe,
Go round and around and around with your partner now
Say goodbye with a great big bow.

We'll all sing glory to the mountain
The mountain is so high
It reaches to the sky
And it's one, two, three follow me.

25. Pony Rides I Have A Little Pony

traditional

Build the suspense a bit when you 'hold back a bit'…. then give a good bounce while you 'gallop away'

I have a little pony and his name is Dapple Grey
And he lives in a stable, not very far away.
He goes: Nimble, nimble, nimble, Trot, trot, trot,
Hold back a bit
Then gallop and gallop and gallop away!

6. Clap Your Hands, Clap Your Hands

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 1994

A song to encourage children to sing as they do the actions

1. Clap your hands, clap your hands and sing a happy song.
   Clap your hands, clap your hands and sing a happy song.
   Clap your hands, clap your hands and sing a happy song.
   Then you shake them shake them shake them right along.
2. Stamp your feet
3. Nod your head
4. Jump up and down

Touch or tickle body parts as they are named, hinchy is the thigh.

Toe titly, little fittily,
Shin sharpy, Knee knapy,
Hinchy pinchy, belly bulgy
Breast berry Chin cherry
Mouth merry, Cheek cheery
Nose nopper, Ear flopper
Eye winky, Brow blinky,
Over the crown and away with it

8. The Truck Song

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2000

Ask the children for suggestions for trucks that work on buildings or roads and make up an action for the truck. There can be as many trucks as you like…you just need to remember the order. Other favourites are 'the steamroller rolls all over the ground', the 'cement mixer pours the foundation down', and 'the front end loader puts the bricks over there.'

1. They're building a building in the middle of town,
   And I can see the trucks moving all around,
   Each one has a job to do
   Cause they're all part of the building crew.
   The dump truck hauls all the dirt away
   Cause he's a part of the building crew.
2. They're building a building in the middle of town,
   And I can see the trucks moving all around,
   Each one has a job to do
   Cause they're all part of the building crew.
   The excavator digs: dig, dig dig,
   The dump truck hauls all the dirt away
   Cause they're all part of the building crew.
3. They're building a building …
   The bulldozer moves the rubble all around
   The excavator digs: dig, dig dig,
   The dump truck hauls all the dirt away
   Cause they're all part of the building crew.
4. They're building a building…
   The crane takes the beam to the top of the roof
   The bulldozer moves the rubble all around

   The dump truck hauls all the dirt away

9. The Train Wheels Are Rolling

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 1999

You can roll your hands around for the choruses, and maybe make up more verses for other cars on the train.

There’s a little red train coming down the track,
Hear those wheels go clickety clack.
Chorus: And the train wheels are rolling,
Rolling, rolling, rolling,
And the train wheels are rolling, rolling right along.

2. There’s an engine at the front,
A caboose at the back,
Hear those wheels go clickety clack. Chorus

3. There’s cars for coal, cars for steel,
Cars for oil and automobiles. Chorus
4. There’s cattle cars where the animals ride,
There’s cows and pigs and sheep inside. Chorus

3. That little train went to the top of the hill,
It went very slow but it got there still.
4. It got to the top then it came back down,
See those wheels go round and round. Chorus

5. Now the little red train’s going down the track,
Hear those wheels go clickety clack.

10. Sally Go Round The Sun

traditional British, (verse two
© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2007)

This is a simple dance that can be done in a circle holding your baby. Gently drop her on Boom! Gently lift her up on Whee! The first verse of this is the traditional version and stands alone as a fine little dance. Older children can dance holding hands with a parent or a friend. It can also be done as a dance without falling down – instead change directions on ‘Boom’ and repeat going the other way.

Sally go round the sun
Sally go round the moon
Sally go round the chimney top
Every afternoon…Boom!

Sally go round the moon
Sally go round the stars
Sally go round and round and round
And jump right up to Mars. …Whee!

21. What will we do if the bees are gone?

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2014

This song addresses the problem that bees are dying from exposure to chemicals. I think that awareness of the problem is leading to solutions.

I sat in the garden on a sunny day
I watched the bees for hours
They flew around from bud to bud
They stopped at every flower.

Chorus: What will we do if the bees are gone?
If honeybees stop humming
There’ll be no flowers there’ll be no food
There’ll be no golden honey

Chorus:
Bees have been here for millions of years
In every kind of weather
But poisons sprayed on crops and fields
May silence them forever.

Chorus:
When I think of the plight of the honeybees
It fills my heart with sorrow
I wonder how our food will grow
If bees are gone tomorrow.

19. The Pie Song

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 1995

Ask the children to name their favourite pies. You can have more pennies so that more children can choose a flavour, or the price of pies could go up and you might need dollars instead of pennies. The last time ask them to think of the pie they wanted to say but didn't have a chance to say it, then they can call it out.

I went down to the County fair,
I had 5 pennies and I spent one there.
I bought an apple pie and I took it home,
I put it on the shelf and I sang this song:
Pie pie pie pie, I can't get enough of that apple pie.
Pie, pie, pie pie, I can't get enough of that pie.

Raspberry pie
Blueberry pie
Cherry
Lemon Meringue

Last verse:
I went down to the County fair,
I had no money to pay the fare.
I didn't buy a pie to put on the shelf,
So if you want any more you can sing it yourself.

20. Keeper of the Bees

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2014

In 2013 I was asked to write a program for primary students at Rose Ave. Public School in Toronto. The theme was bees. I had a hard time finding songs or rhymes about bees that were appropriate so I wrote about 8 songs. Most of these have been released on other CDs but this is the first time that they have been published.

This song was written for Board's Honey Farm in Restoule Ontario where I live most of the year. There are so many kinds of honey and though the flavours are different, they are all 'the sweetest honey!'

I know a woman, happy as can be
She is known as the keeper of the bees
She keeps hives out behind the barn
And her honeybees make the sweetest honey

Honey, honey from the bees
Honey, from the flowers and the trees
Honey, honey from the hive
Honey from the keeper of the bees

There's wildflowers blooming all around the farm
From dawn till dusk while the weather's warm
Clover, daisies, dandelions and more
And the wildflowers make the sweetest honey

Buckwheat honey is sweet and brown
But the buckwheat grows on the other side of town
So she keeps some hives in her good friend's yard
And the buckwheat makes the sweetest honey

Basswood flowers are swaying in the breeze
Wafting perfume all around the trees

11. Sleeping Pterodactyls

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 1993

In the first part children pretend to sleep and then they wake up and fly around the room, returning to place at the end.

All the pterodactyls were sleeping very still,
Down in a cave at the bottom of a hill
When all of a sudden, one of them did cry,
"Wake up pterodactyls and fly, fly, fly!
Fly to the east and fly to the west,
Fly all around and then fly back to your nest."

I wrote another verse for this that you may enjoy.

All the little dinosaurs were sleeping on the ground

Very quietly, making not a sound
When all of a sudden, one of them did shout
Wake up dinosaurs and stomp all about.
Stomp to the east and stomp to the west
Stomp all around and then stomp back to your nest.

14. Snow On The Rooftops

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2009

You can make the snow fall on other places too.

Snow on the rooftops, snow on the trees
Snow on the green grass, snow on me.
Snow on my mittens, snow on my nose
Snow on my head and snow on my toes.
Whirling, twirling swirling down
Down and down and down and down.

Ken: banjo cello, vibraphone.

15. Snowflakes

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2008

Make fluttery snowflakes with your fingers and act out the words.

Snowflakes, snowflakes softly falling from the sky
Snowflakes, snowflakes they’ll be landing by and by Snowflakes, snowflakes whirling twirling all around
Snowflakes, snowflakes gently falling to the ground
Quietly without a sound.

16. Spring is Coming

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2013

This song came after a really long winter that featured an ice storm that lasted for a few days and left our front steps covered in 2 feet of ice.

I can feel the sun shining, shining, shining all around
I can feel the sun shining, all around.
Spring is coming and the sun is shining all around.
I can see the snow melting, melting, melting all around
I can see the snow melting, all around.
Spring is coming and the snow is melting and the sun is shining all around.
I can hear the birds singing, singing, inging all around.
I can hear the birds singing, all around.
Spring is coming and the birds are singing and the snow is melting and the sun is shining all around.
I can see the rivers flowing, flowing,
flowing all around

I can see the rivers flowing all around.
Spring is coming and the rivers are flowing and the birds are singing and the snow is melting and the sun is shining all around.
I can see the people smiling, smiling, smiling all around
I can see the people smiling all around.
Spring is coming and the people are smiling and the rivers are flowing and the birds are singing and the snow is melting and the sun is shining all around.

17. Welcome Summer

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2015

Welcome summer, birds and bees and butterflies
Welcome summer, wildflowers and berry pies
Summer, summer, my favourite time of the year
Summer, summer, summertime is here.

Welcome summer, lakes and ponds and swimming holes
Welcome summer, campfires and fishing poles
Summer, summer, my favourite time of the year
Summer, summer, summertime is here.

Fireflies on summer nights,
Nesting ducks and birds in flight
Shooting stars and thunderstorms and northern lights and more.

Welcome summer, soft winds whispering through the pines
Welcome summer, ripe tomatoes on the vine
Summer, summer, my favourite time of the year
Summer, summer, summertime is here.

Ben: bass, Ken: guitar, accordion, mandolin, shaker

18. Heigh Ho Halloween’s Here

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2013

The second verse, from an unknown source, was the basis for this song. It really needed more verses, so I wrote them.

Its Halloween time and I suppose
We should put on our masks and dress-up clothes
We’ll have a party and everybody knows
Heigh Ho Halloween’s here.

Chorus: Heigh Ho, Heigh Ho,
Heigh Ho Halloween’s here.

Theres one little, two little, three little witches,
Flying over hedges, gliding over ditches,
Sliding down moonbeams without any hitches
Heigh Ho Halloween’s here. Chorus:

Theres one little, two little, three little ghosts,
Flying through the air and landing on the lamp posts.
Giggling and laughing’s what they like the most
Heigh Ho Halloween’s here. Chorus:

Theres one little, two little, three little bats,
Wearing black cloaks and silly hats,
Flitting all around like acrobats
Heigh Ho Halloween’s here. Chorus:

Chris: trumpet, Ben: bass, Ken: guitar
