Thank You!

I want to thank the many people who helped bring this recording to life. Ken, with his brilliant ideas and arrangements, Nik with his amazing ear for detail, Lisette's gorgeous painting, David's patience and skill with designing the booklet and making all the words fit, the chorus singers who gave up their Saturday to come and sing their hearts out and all the amazing musicians who played. Thank you Jesse Whiteley for the great horn arrangements, especially for adding the Teddy Bear's Picnic in the Gingerbread Man! Hannah, thank you for your beautiful harmonies.

1. Snowflakes Kathy Reid-Naiman 2008 SOCAN

Make fluttery snowflakes with your fingers and act out the words.

Snowflakes, snowflakes softly falling from the sky
Snowflakes, snowflakes they'll be landing by and by Snowflakes, snowflakes whirling twirling all around
Snowflakes, snowflakes gently falling to the ground
Quietly without a sound.

Ken – guitars, vibraphone,
Ben W – bass.

2. A Chubby Little Snowman

A chubby little snowman, (make a fist with one hand)
Had a carrot nose. (poke your thumb out to make a carrot nose)
Along came a bunny, and what do you suppose? (make bunny ears with your other hand)
That hungry little bunny, out looking for his lunch,
Ate the snowman's carrot nose... (bunny pretends to eat the carrot)
Nibble, nibble, crunch.

3. It's Going To Be A Long Winter

This lovely old camp song grew out of the nursery rhyme 'The Cold Wind Doth Blow'.

1. It's going to be a long winter
   And what will the birdie do then? The poor Thing?
   He'll fly to the barn, to keep himself warm
   And tuck his head under his wing. The poor Thing
2. It's going to be a long springtime,
   And what will the birdie do then? The poor Thing?
   He'll fly to the sky, to keep himself dry
   And tuck his head under his wing. The poor Thing
3. It's going to be a long summer
   And what will the birdie do then? The poor Thing?
   He'll fly to the pool, to keep himself cool
   And tuck his head under his wing. The poor Thing.
4. It's going to be a long autumn
   And what will the birdie do then? The poor Thing?
   He'll fly to the trees, to sit in the breeze
   And tuck his head under his wing. The poor Thing.

4. Snow On The Rooftops

Kathy Reid-Naiman socan © 2009

You can make the snow fall on other places too.

Snow on the rooftops, snow on the trees
Snow on the green grass, snow on me.

Snow on my mittens, snow on my nose
Snow on my head and snow on my toes.

Whirling, twirling swirling down
Down and down and down and down.

Ken – banjo cello, vibraphone.

5. Rum Tum Tickle

Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2008

Here is a little tickle to share with your baby.

Rum tum tiddle idle um tum tickle
This gingerbread baby's gonna have a little tickle
One for his tummy and one for his toes
And a great big kiss for his gingerbread nose!

6. The Gingerbread Man © Debra Aronson Shore

A great version of the classic story.

1. There was an old woman who baked every day
   She made gingerbread men, – piled them high on a tray
   Once she put one in the oven but something went wrong,
   When she opened up the door one jumped out and sang this song:

   Chorus: Run run run as fast as you can
   You can't catch me I'm the Gingerbread man.
   Run run run as fast as you can
   You can't catch me I'm the Gingerbread man.

2. Well, he ran through the kitchen and out the front door
   Past the old man in the garden who was doing his chores.
   The old man yelled "Stop! You're my lunch! You come back!"
   But the Gingerbread man would be nobody's snack. chorus:

3. He ran past a cow grazing in the hay.
   The old cow said "I won't let him get away."
   But the cow was too slow to get onto the trail
   And anybody listening could hear that cookie wail: chorus:

4. He ran through the woods past 3 picnicking bears.
   He smelled so scrumptious he just had to be theirs.
   They got up to chase him cause he smelt so good and sweet
   But the Gingerbread man would be nobody's treat! chorus:

5. He ran past some mowers busy at their work.
   They said "Did a cookie just run by us or are we going berserk?"
   So they put down their mowers to follow his sweet scent
   But he was running too fast and singing as he went: chorus:

6. He ran over hills climbed on mountains and on rocks,
   Till he came to a river and a hungry fox.
   The fox was so sly he devised a wicked plan
   For the crunchy demise of the Gingerbread man.

7. He said, "Do you need some help to get to the other side?
   Well hop onto my back and I'll take you for a ride."
   So he hopped onto his back, then on his head then on his nose...
   The fox flipped him in his mouth and that's the way the story goes.

All of the others gathered round to get a crumb,
But when they got up to the fox they could hear his tummy hum: (hum chorus then sing chorus)

7. Plum Pudding lyrics unknown, tune Kathy Reid-Naiman © SOCAN

Baking is a big part of most seasonal celebrations and this is a fun song to sing while you are doing it.

Into a big bowl put the plums;	(extend arms to make a bowl in front of you)
Stir-about, stir-about, stir-about stir!	(leave one arm in the shape of the bowl and stir with the other hand)
Next the good white flour comes;	(add flour to the bowl)
Stir-about, stir-about, stir-about stir!	(stir)
Add sugar and peel and eggs and spice;	(add these to the bowl)
Stir-about, stir-about, stir-about stir!	(stir)
Mix it and fix it and bake it up twice;	(put it in the oven)
Then eat it up! eat it up! eat it up!	(eat it)
YUMMMMMMMM!	(rub tummy)

8. My Turkey Ran Away traditional adapted by Sandy Byer

Children can suggest other foods that may escape before they get eaten too. This is also a good song for Thanksgiving.

1. My turkey ran away, before a Christmas day.
   'Cause I would make a meal of him if he should stay.

   Chorus: And he ran and he ran and he ran and he ran,
   Through the ice and the freezing snow.
   And he ran and he ran and he ran and he ran,
   Just as fast as he could go.

2. My Potatoes ran away, before a Christmas day.
   For I might make a soup of them they should stay.

3. My apples ran away, before a Christmas day.
   For I might make a juice of them they should stay.

4. My pumpkin ran away, before a Christmas day.
   For I might make a pie of him if he should stay.

9. Dreidle Dance Aubrey Davis © 1996

This is a rhyme for spinning around and falling down – what fun!

Dreidle, dreidle
Spin and Spin
Round and round and round
Wibble wobble wibble wobble
All fall down.

Ken – red backed boinger/piano.

10. I Have A Little Dreidle

I have a little dreidle
I made it out of clay
And when it's dry and ready
My dreidle I will play.

Dreidle, dreidle dreidle
I made it out of clay
Dreidle, dreidle dreidle
My dreidle I will play.

Ken – guitar, accordion,
Ben W – doublebass,
Bob – clarinet,
Bucky – drums.

11. Big Belly Ben Aubrey Davis © 1996

Latkes are wonderful potato pancakes traditionally made at Channukah. They are so tasty that I can certainly understand why Ben would want to eat so many!

Chorus: Ben, Ben, Big Belly Ben
Ate more latkes than a hundred men
Ben, Ben, Big Belly Ben
Ate more latkes than a hundred men

1. He ate latkes in the morning and latkes at night.
   He ate twenty-two latkes with one big bite X2

   Chorus

2. He ate 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 …And more more more
   He ate 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 …And more more more

   Chorus

3. He ate latkes fast and latkes slow
   He ate them with a knife and his hairy toe. X2

   Chorus

Finish with:Tsk tsk tsk tsk tsk tsk tsk
(Wag your finger)

Ken – snare/brushes, harmony,
Ben W – double bass,
Bucky – drums.

12. Ring Ring Ring Your Bells

Ring ring ring your bells
Ring them loud and clear
To tell the children everywhere
That Christmas time is here,

Ken – bells.

13. Christmas Is Coming

Christmas is coming the goose is getting fat.
Please put a penny in the old man's hat.
If you haven't got a penny,
Then a ha'penny will do.
If you haven't got a ha'penny, then God bless you!

Chorus – Kathy, Hannah, Katie, Jesse, John, Judy, Paul, Rick.

14. Almost Day traditional

Imagine children waiting for a special day to arrive. The excitement builds until they can hardly contain themselves.

Chicken's crowing for midnight it's almost day X2
I thought I heard my mama say
I thought I heard my papa say
I thought I heard my grampa say
I thought I heard my sister say
Turkey's in the oven
Everybody's coming
We'll have a great big party
Morning stars are rising

15. There Was A Pig Went Out To Dig

This song is great for rhyming. Children can think of an animal and then think of a rhyming thing that it could do. The song comes from the old belief that animals do strange and wonderful things on Christmas day.

1. There was a Pig went out to Dig;
Christmas Day, Christmas Day.
There was a Pig went out to Dig;
Christmas Day in the morning.
2. There was a Cow went out to Plow
3. There was a Sparrow went out to Harrow
4. There was a Crow went out to Sow
5. There was a Sheep went out to Reap
6. There was a Drake went out to Rake
7. There was a Minnow went out to Winnow

Kathy – dulcimer,
Ken – guitar,
Ben G – bodhran,
Loretto – pennywhistles.

16. Here Is A Chimney unknown

Here is the chimney, (make a fist with one hand)
Here is the top. (cover it with the other hand)
Lift up the lid (lift hand off fist)
And out Santa will pop! (pop thumb out)

17. Santa Claus With His Long White Beard Kathy Reid-Naiman/Ken Whiteley © 2008 SOCAN

This song started out as a chants with a call and response chorus. I was very influenced by Aubrey Davis's wonderful chant. (Dirty Bill from Vinegar Hill and Big Belly Ben) When Ken heard it he added a tune on the spot and here it is.

Santa Claus with his long white beard,
And his big round belly… goes out to here,
With a twinkle in his eyes, and a finger on his nose,
And a smile on his face, he goes Ho Ho Ho.

Chorus: Ho… [ho]
Ho… [ho]'
Ho Ho Ho Ho Ho Ho Ho.
Ho… [ho]
Ho… [ho]'
Ho Ho Ho Ho Ho Ho Ho.

Santa Claus with his coat of red,
With his furry hat on the top of his head,
In his big black boots...some call them 'wellys'
When he laughs he shakes like a bowl of Jellies.

Ken – guitar, harmony,
Ben W – double bass,
Bucky – drums,
William – trombone.

18. Santa's Reindeer unknown

Here is old Santa, (left thumb)
Here is his sleigh. (right thumb)
These are his reindeer, which he drives away. (8 fingers)
Dasher, Dancer, Prancer, Vixen, (point to each one)
Comet, Cupid, Donner, Blitzen
Away they all go! (fly away)

19. How Many Miles To Bethlehem traditional

This is a sing-song, knee joggle.

How many miles to Bethlehem?
Three score and ten
Can I get there by candlelight?
Yes and back again.

Open the door and let me through
Toll first you pay.
I have no gold what shall I do?
Turn and go away.

Ken – guitar.

20. Children Go Where I Send Thee

This song is a memory game.

Children go where I send thee.
How shall I send thee?
I'm going to send thee one by one;
One for the little bitty baby,
was born, born, born in Bethlehem.

2 for Paul and Silas,
3 for the Hebrew children,
4 for the 4 that knocked at the door,
5 for the gospel preachers,
6 for the 6 that couldn't get fixed,
7 for the 7 that went to heaven,
8 for the 8 that stood at the gate,
9 for the 9 that dressed so fine,
10 for the 10 commandments

Last verse:
Children go where I send thee.
How shall I send thee?
I'm going to send you ten by ten:
10 for the 10 commandments,
9 for the 9 that dressed so fine,
8 for the 8 that stood at the gate,
7 for the 7 that went to heaven,
6 for the 6 that couldn't get fixed,
5 for the gospel preachers,
4 for the 4 that knocked at the door,
3 for the Hebrew children,
2 for Paul and Silas,
One for the little bitty baby,
was born, born, born in Bethlehem.

Ken – electric guitar, organ, vibes, Ben W – double bass,
Bucky – drums, Chris – harmonica,
Chorus – Hannah, Katie, Ken, Jesse, John, Judy, Paul, Rick.

21. Child Of God traditional

Chorus: If anybody asks you who I am
Who I am, who I am
If anybody asks you who I am
Tell them I'm a child of God.

1. The little cradle rock this night in glory
Night in glory, night in glory
The little cradle rock this night in glory
Christ child born in glory. Chorus:

2. Peace on earth, Mary rock the cradle
Mary rock the cradle, Mary rock the cradle
Peace on earth, Mary rock the cradle
Christ child born in glory. Chorus:

3. The Christ child passing singing softly
Singing softly, singing softly
The Christ child passing singing softly.
Christ child born in glory. Chorus:

4. Don't you hear that foot in the treetop
Foot in the treetop, foot in the treetop
Don't you hear that foot in the treetop
Soft like the south wind blowing. Chorus:

If anybody asks you where I'm bound
Where I'm bound, where I'm bound
If anybody asks you where I'm bound
Tell them I'm bound for glory.

Arnie – gourd banjo,
Ben W – double bass,
Ken – harmony.

22. The Shepherd's Carol unknown

When I was about 8 years old I sang this song with my sisters in the church choir in Trenton Ontario. It was always our mother's favourite carol. My sister Mary wrote the harmony part we have continued singing it through the years. Since she was unable to join us on this recording, Hannah learned her part.

Tonight I left my quiet hill which bends above the town
To find my heart was turned to flame
Because a star shone down
Deserted are my huddled sheep although the wind is cold
Oh gently lift the broken latch he is not very old.

I only know the ways of lambs that gather in the briar
Yet here beneath the tumbled thatch is all my heart's desire
I only have my song to give
To eyes so sadly sweet
O little starry headed child, I kneel before your feet.

Ken – piano,
Ben W – bowed bass,
Loretto – wooden flute.

23. Brightest And Best

This beautiful song was taught to me by my sister Mary Colmer. She learned it at the Berea Christmas Country Dance school in the 1970's and I fell in love with it. I have been singing it at the Flying Cloud Folk Club's annual Seasonal Celebration in Toronto for more than 25 years. Some of the many friends who have been singing it with me at that celebration join me here on the choruses.

Hail the blest morn, see the great mediator
Down from the regions of glory descend
Shepherds go worship the babe in the manger
Lo for a guard the bright angels attend.

Chorus: Brightest and best of the suns of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid.
Star of the east the horizon adorning.
Guide where our infant redeemer is laid.

Cold on his cradle the dew drops are shining
Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall
Angels adore him in slumber reclining
Maker and monarch and king of us all.

Say shall we yield him with costly devotion
Odors of edom and offerings divine?
Gems from the mountain and pearls from the ocean
Myrrh from the forest and gold from the mine.

Vainly we offer each ample oblation
Vainly with gifts would his favours secure.
Richer by far is the heart's adoration
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

Ken – guitar,
William – Trombones,
Chorus – Hannah, Katie, Jesse, John, Judy, Paul, Rick.

24. The Solstice Song Alouette Iselin ©

This song captures the sentiment of sharing with those less fortunate in such a poignant way. It is a song about the longest night of the year but I sing it all year round.

Refrain: Let me come in and share your light,
For I'm without a friend tonight.
Let me come in and share your light
And a warm place by your fire.

1. It looks so golden warm within
Sheltered from the winter wind.
Songs and laughter, friends and kin,
Have brought me to your door. Refrain

2. Open your door, for here I stand,
My only gift is my empty hand,
Empty heart and broken plans
On this dark day of the year. Refrain

3. I am without a home today
And soon I must be on my way,
I only ask you to let me stay,
For an hour by your fire. Refrain

Kathy – dulcimer,
Ken – piano,
Arnie – guitar,
Ben W – double bass,
Hannah – harmony.

25. Welcome Here

A Quaker song of welcoming. I think that originally there was only one verse so Sandy Byer added one, I added a verse, Hannah added one and you can add your own too.

Welcome here, welcome here,
All be alive and be of good cheer
Welcome here, welcome here,
All be alive and be of good cheer

1. I've got a pie that's baked complete and pudding too so very sweet
2. I've got a turkey moist and lean with gravy, carrots and string beans.
3. I've got sweets and clementines and chocolate of every kind
4. I've got cider from our press and spirits of the very best
5. Come in dear people hear me sing a song of friendly welcoming.

Ken – piano, mandolin, lap steel, banjo,
Ben W – double bass,
Bucky – drums,
Chris – harmonica,
Chorus – Hannah, Katie, Jesse, Ken, John, Judy, Paul, Rick.

26. Ring It In

Ring it in Ring in the new year X2
Bells are ringing, bells are ringing X2
Peace and love throughout the new year X2
Joy joy joy X2

Chorus – Kathy, Hannah, Katie, Jesse, John, Judy, Paul, Rick.

27. Stars Shining

This song can go on for as long as you can count the stars!

Stars shining number number one, number two, number three
Oh my! By and by, by and by, oh my by and by.
Stars shining number number four, number five, number six
Oh my! By and by, by and by, oh my by and by.
Stars shining number number seven, number eight, number nine
Oh my! By and by, by and by, oh my by and by.
Stars shining number number ten, number eleven, number twelve
Oh my! By and by, by and by, oh my by and by.

This recording has been a dream come true for me. Some of these songs I have been singing since I was a very young girl, some I have learned at music and dance camps, some I made up, some were written by dear friends and some were shared by friends along the way. They all have a very special place in my heart.

I am so grateful to be able to share this music and without the love and support of my dearest friend I would not be able to do it. Thank you Arnie from the depths of my soul.

This recording is lovingly dedicated to my mother, Florence Reid.

Kathy Reid-Naiman has shared her love of music with children and their adults in school, library and home settings since 1980. She teaches pre-school music at libraries in Ontario, and presents professional workshops to adults who work with children. She has delivered keynote addresses and workshops across North America at conferences, libraries and Early Learning Centres.

Although known primarily for her work with children, Kathy also has enjoyed a wide career in traditional music and dance. She is a self taught musician who plays numerous instruments, including guitar, fiddle, autoharp, ukulele and Appalachian mountain dulcimer. At the age of fifteen she began performing in coffee houses and clubs. She loves dance of all kinds and regularly attends Pinewoods Music and Dance Camp in Massachusetts and Berea Christmas Country Dance School. In addition she is the musician for The Toronto Women's Sword Dance Team and a founding member of the Green Fiddle Morris Team in Toronto. Kathy has been the director of the Flying Cloud Seasonal Celebration since the early 1990's.

Kathy and her husband Arnie Naiman perform as 'Ragged but Right' and have produced one recording together – 'Down Harmony Road'. They live in Aurora with Falkor – their beautiful golden retriever.
