

Since 1980, Kathy has been sharing her love of music with children and their adults in school, library and home settings. She teaches pre-school music at several libraries in Ontario. She teaches workshops to adults who work with children and she has presented keynote addresses and workshops across North America at conferences, libraries and Early Learning Centres.

Although she is known primarily for her work with children she also has had a wide career in adult music and dance.

She is a self taught musician who plays guitar, fiddle, autoharp, ukulele and Appalachian mountain dulcimer.

Kathy lives in Aurora Ontario with her husband Arnie and Maggie Muggins their golden retriever.

Songs, rhymes, tickles and dances for your baby

Celebrating 20 years of recording music for babies

Since 1994 when my first cassette tape, Tickles and Tunes, was recorded I have compiled 13 CDs and produced or collaborated on 7 more – 20 CDs in 20 years! I have also produced one DVD and an ipad app (Together Time). To celebrate this amazing accomplishment I have chosen some of my favourite songs, rhymes, tickles, knee joggles, dances and lullabies for babies and put them together on one together on one CD. Choosing the songs was not easy since I have recorded almost 400 songs, but I think these are the cream of the crop; they are all eternal favourites in the 'Tickles and Tunes' baby classes that I have been teaching since 1986.

If you like what you hear please check out the other 13 CDs. You can find the original track information after the lyrics of each song.

1. It's A Beautiful Day Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2004

It can be a beautiful day for whatever you feel like singing about!

It's a beautiful day, it's a beautiful day
It's a beautiful day for singing. (X2)

Singing singing it's a beautiful day for singing.

2. Dancing 3. Jumping 4. Twirling

Bucky: conga, Chris: harmonica, Dennis: electric bass, Ken: guitar, fretless banjo, shakers, Nik: guiro, Mark: Mosca steel drums

2. Say Hello To The Morning Kathy Reid-Naiman © ℗ 1999

This song works well as a name song, Say hello to Julia and Chris, and the birds are singing in the morning. And I say hello to Erik and Anna, and I say hello to the Morning.

1. Oh the sun is up and the world is awake,
   And the birds are singing in the morning.
   As I rub my eyes and get out of my bed
   And I say hello to the morning.

2. And I say hello to the dog and the cat,
   And the birds are singing in the morning.
   And I say hello to the fish in the bowl,
   And I say hello to the morning.

3. And I say hello to flowers and the bees,
   And the birds that are singing in the morning.
   And I say hello to the clouds in the sky,
   And I say hello to the morning.

Chris: harmonica, Hannah: harmony vocals, Ken: guitar

(from Say Hello to the Morning)

3. Down On Grampa's Farm Traditional – Spanish

Ask your child what animals might be on grampa's farm and what colour they might be.

We're on our way, we're on our way
On our way to grampa's farm
We're on our way, we're on our way
On our way to grampa's farm

Down on grampa's farm there is a little white lamb
Down on grampa's farm there is a little white lamb
The lamb, she makes a sound like this….baaa
The lamb, she makes a sound like this….baaa

2. Down on grampa's farm there is a black and white cow
3. Down on grampa's farm there is a little pink pig
4. Down on grampa's farm there is a little red chicken
5. Down on grampa's farm there is a big black horse

Kathy: harmony vocals, Ken: guitar, mandola, electric bass, harmony vocals,
Ken, Kathy, Mary: animal noises

(from Sally Go Round the Sun)

4. Roly Poly Ever So Slowly

Repeat many times!

Roly Poly ever so slowly, … ever so slowly …
Roly Poly faster faster, … faster faster faster.

(from Tickles and Tunes)

5. Here Is A Little Boy

This lovely little fingerplay was collected by Celia Lottridge.

Here is a little boy,	(hold up index finger)
Here is his bed.	(hold out other hand palm up)
Here is his pillow,	(lay thumb across 'bed' palm)
And here is his head.	(put index finger on pillow)
Here are his covers,	(wiggle 'palm' fingers)
Pull them up tight.	(curl fingers over 'boy')
Sing him a lullabye,	(rock bed)
And kiss him goodnight.	(kiss 'boy')

(from Say Hello to the Morning)

6. Open, Shut Them/I Have 10 Little Fingers

The actions for this variation of a very popular song are self explanatory. It's fun to do it silently with only the actions until "do not let them in".

Open, shut them, open, shut them,
Give a little clap, clap, clap.
Open, shut them, open, shut them,
Put them in your lap, lap, lap.

Creep them, crawl them, creep them, crawl them,
Right up to your chin, chin, chin.
Open wide… your little mouth…
But do not let them in.

I Have 10 Little Fingers
I love the spooky sound of this tune.
I have 10 little fingers, they all belong to me.
I can make them do things would you like to see?
I can make them shut tight, I can open them wide,
I can put them all together and I can make them hide.
I can make them jump high, I can make them jump low,
I can fold them all together and put them all just so.

Ken: accordion, (from More Tickles and Tunes)

7. Rum Tum Tiddle Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2008

Here is a little tickle to share with your baby.

Rum tum tiddle idle um tum tickle
This gingerbread baby's gonna have a little tickle
One for his tummy and one for his toes
And a great big kiss for his gingerbread nose!

(from Sing the Cold Winter Away)

8. Round And Round The Garden/Knock At The Door

This is a classic tickle.

Round and round the garden (make a circle on baby's hand)
Like a teddy bear
One step two step (walk fingers up his arm)
Tickle you under there! (then tickle him under his arm)

Knock At The Door

I used to love it when my grandmother did her version of this face game.

Knock at the door, (gently tap baby's forehead)
Ring the bell, peep in, (tug a lock of her hair and look into her eyes)
Lift up the latch, (touch the tip of her nose)
Walk in. (touch her lips)
Go downstairs and eat apples (run your fingers down to her tummy and tickle!)

(from Zoom Zoom Cuddle and Croon)

9. X Marks The Spot

This is a nice all over tickle.

X marks the spot, with a dot and a dot, (make an X on child's back, then poke lightly twice)
And a Dash and a dash, (inscribe 2 lines on their back)
And a Big Question mark (draw a question mark on their back)
Crack an egg on your head, let the yolk run down, (pretend to break an egg over their head)
Crack an egg on your head, let the yolk run down, (then run fingers down the head to the back)
A small pinch, a slight squeeze,
A cool country breeze. (a gentle pinch, a small hug, blow on their neck)

(from More Tickles and Tunes)

10. Jeremiah Blow The Fire

This traditional verse is great for diaper times. Blow gently on baby's tummy, then blow a 'raspberry'.

Jeremiah blow the fire Puff puff puff.
First you blow it gently,
Then you blow it rough!

(from Say Hello to the Morning)

11. Zoom, Zoom, Zoom

This is a face-to-face lap song or a standing up song ending with a lift up.

Zoom, Zoom, Zoom
We're going to the moon
Zoom, Zoom, Zoom
We're going to the moon
If you want to take a trip
Climb aboard my rocket ship
Zoom, Zoom, Zoom
We're going to the moon
5, 4, 3, 2, 1, Blast off!

Ken: autoharp

(from A Smooth Road to London Town)

12. Sleeping Bunnies

This is a favourite in many nursery schools. The children pretend to sleep until "Wake Up Soon!" Then they hop around the room.

See the little bunnies sleeping till it's nearly noon.
Come and let us gently wake them with a merry tune.
Oh how still! Are they ill?…WAKE UP SOON!
Hop little bunnies hop hop hop.
Hop little bunnies hop hop hop.
Hop little bunnies hop hop hop.
Hop little bunnies hop hop hop.

Ken: ukulele

(from Tickles and Tunes)

13. Shoofly

This traditional circle dance is so simple to do and so satisfying. When you are singing it you can do it much slower than I have done it here and enjoy the babies' look of surprise as they see other babies coming toward them in the middle of the circle.

Shoofly, don't bother me! (circle to the left)
Shoofly, don't bother me!
Shoofly, don't bother me!
Cause I belong to somebody. (repeat while you circle to the right)
I feel, I feel, I feel like a morning star! (go to the middle)
I feel, I feel, I feel like a morning star! (back out)

(Repeat)

Anne: fiddle, Arnie: Vega banjo, Ken: guitar, jaw harp, harmony vocals

(from Sally Go Round the Sun)

14. The Grand Old Duke Of York

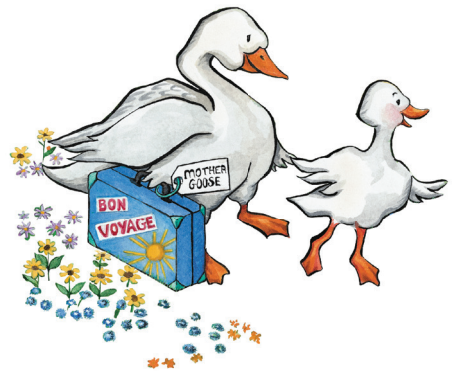

Your can do this with a group of children in a circle, with one child marching about, or as a bouncing rhyme. You may know another tune to this song!

He had ten thousand men (circle right)

He marched them up to the top of the hill (into the middle)
And he marched them down again (back out)
And when they were up they were up (into the middle and jump)
And when they were down they were down (back out and squat)
And when they were only half way up (into the middle halfway)
They were neither up nor down (jump up and squat down)
And he marched them to the left (circle left)
And he marched them to the right (circle right)
And he marched them around and around and around (turn around and around)
And he marched them out of sight. (end facing out, or cover child's eyes with hands)

Chris: trumpet, Ken: percussion

(from A Smooth Road to London Town)

15. Jump Josie Traditional USA

All ages.

Formation: circle. Teacher picks a child to step into the middle to jump when the verse is finished child stays in the middle and chooses someone at the end of the verse to join him. The last time everyone re-joins the circle. Hannah discovered that this dance works well for parents and babies dancing together. When dancing with babes in arms, face the baby out. Dancers do not need to join hands as they circle, but instead are encouraged to smile and wave as the baby who is dancing in the center passes them by. All those smiling faces are contagious!

Chorus: We're floating down the river. (Join hands and walk slowly to the left.)
We're floating down below,
We're floating down the river To the Ohio.

One in the middle and you can't jump Josie, Jump!
One in the middle and you can't jump Josie,
One in the middle and you can't jump Josie,
Oh my Susan Brown. Chorus:

Two in the middle and you can't jump Josie, Jump!
Two in the middle and you can't jump Josie,
Two in the middle and you can't jump Josie,
Oh my Susan Brown. Chorus:

Four in the middle and you can't jump Josie, Jump!
Four in the middle and you can't jump Josie,
Four in the middle and you can't jump Josie,
Oh my Susan Brown. Chorus:

Eight in the middle and you can't jump Josie, Jump!
Eight in the middle and you can't jump Josie,
Eight in the middle and you can't jump Josie,
Oh my Susan Brown. Chorus:

Note: In the traditional version there would be one child in the middle for the first verse who would then choose another person to join for the second verse. The both would choose to make 4 and they would all choose to make 8.

Get out of there and you can't jump Josie (X3)
Oh my Susan Brown.

Arnie: banjo, Ben: bass, Hannah: lead vocal, John: fiddle, Kathy: harmony, Ken: piano

16. Sally Go Round the Sun

Traditional British, (verse two
Kathy Reid-Naiman © SOCAN 2007)

This is a simple dance that can be done in a circle holding your baby. Gently drop her on Boom! Gently lift her up on Whee! The first verse of this is the traditional version and stands alone as a fine little dance. Older children can dance holding hands with a parent or a friend. It can also be done as a dance without falling down – instead change directions on 'Boom' and repeat going the other way.

Sally go round the sun
Sally go round the moon
Sally go round the chimney top
Every afternoon…Boom!

Sally go round the moon
Sally go round the stars
Sally go round and round and round
And jump right up to Mars …Whee!

Anne: fiddle, Bucky: drums,
Dennis: bass, Ken: piano,

(from Sally Go Round the Sun)

17. We're Walking To The Drum

Kathy Reid-Naiman © SOCAN 2010

Using a simple drum to tap out the beat, the children move around the room and stop when the drum stops.

We're walking, we're walking,
We're walking to the drum.
We're walking, we're walking,
We're walking now we're done.

We're tiptoeing
We're stomping
We're running

Kathy: drum

(from I love to Hear the Sounds)

18. The Ponies Are Walking

Kathy Reid-Naiman © ℗ 1998

A simple pony song to use in a circle.

1. The Ponies are walking, they're walking along,
   Walking along, walking along.
   The Ponies are walking, they're walking along,
   Whoa! Whoa! Whoa!
2. The Ponies are trotting, they're trotting along,
   Trotting along, trotting along.
   The Ponies are trotting, they're trotting along,
   Whoa! Whoa! Whoa!
3. The Ponies are walking, they're walking along,
   Walking along, walking along.
   The Ponies are walking, they're walking along,
   Whoa! Whoa! Whoa!
4. The Ponies are galloping, they're galloping on,
   Galloping on, galloping on,
   The Ponies are galloping, they're galloping on,
   Whoa! Whoa! Whoa!
5. The Ponies are walking, they're walking back home,
   Walking back home, walking back home.
   The Ponies are walking, they're walking back home,
   To sit back down.

Ken: mando cello, mandola, mandolin

(from Say Hello to the Morning)

19. Bell Horses

This old nursery rhyme according to Peter and Iona Opie, was a children's race starting rhyme. Sometimes I use it to walk in a circle with the children. Then we 'go the other way' at the end it is 'time to go away' or 'time to put away'. We modulated the melody up a half tone for fun, but it is much easier to stay in one key.

Bell horses bell horses what's the time of day?
One o'clock, two o'clock, time to go away.

Bell horses bell horses what's the time of day?
Three o'clock, four o'clock, time to go away.

Bell horses bell horses what's the time of day?
Five o'clock, six o'clock, time to go away.

Bell horses bell horses what's the time of day?
Seven o'clock, eight o'clock, time to go away.

Bucky: drums, Kathy: bells, Ken: guitar, organ, bells, Victor: bass, William: trombone

(from I love to Hear the Sounds)

20. Little Lap Dog traditional

I started singing this lovely lullabye when I lost my beloved dog and couldn't wait to find a new pal.

Mama's gonna buy you a little lap dog
Mama's gonna buy you a little lap dog
Mama's gonna buy you a little lap dog
Gonna put it your lap when she goes off.

Come up horsey hey hey
Come up horsey hey hey
Come up horsey hey hey
Come up horsey hey hey

Chris: harmonica, Kathy: guitar, Ken: guitar

(from On My Way to Dreamland)

21. Mr Moon/The Cuckoo

These two songs can be sung separately or together. There is nothing as wonderful as hearing a roomful of people singing together and these ones are easy to teach and sing.

Mr. Moon, Mr.Moon,
You're out too soon,
The sun is still in the sky.
Go back into your bed,
And cover up your head,
Until the day goes by.

The Cuckoo
Twas on a summers evening,
I walked the forest through.
When suddenly I heard it a soft and sweet cuckoo.
Cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo,
Cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo,

(From On My Way to Dreamland)

22. Jarvis To Port Dover

Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2003

This little knee bounce popped into my head after driving around the back roads of rural Ontario.

While going down a bumpy road
From Jarvis to Port Dover
My wheel got stuck inside a rut
And I went tumbling over! Whoops!

Over, whoops! Over, whoops!
And I went tumbling over, whoops!

Ken: calliope

(from Reaching for the Stars)

23. A Smooth Road

If the child is squirmy, you can shorten this bounce, or you can mix it up, so that one time it may be 4 times through each action, and the next only once or twice. Or there could be a hole in the smooth road.

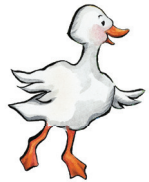

A smooth road, a smooth road,
A smooth road, a smooth road,
A rough road, a rough road,
A rough road, a rough road,
A bumpy road, a bumpy road,
A bumpy road, a bumpy road,
A Hole!

(from More Tickles and Tunes)

24. A Smooth Road To London Town

This is a good lap song.

A smooth road to London town (joggle child gently on your knee)
A smooth road to London town
The road goes up and the road goes down (raise and lower knees)
A smooth road to London town
But… by and by we come to a dell (pause, then bounce child a little faster)
There the roads are not so swell
A bumpy road, a bumpy road, a bumpy road to London town
A smooth road to London town (joggle child gently on your knee)
A smooth road to London town
The road goes up and the road goes down (raise and lower knees)
A smooth road to London town
But… by and by we come to a wood (pause, then bounce a lot faster)
And there the roads are not so good
A rough road, a rough road, a rough road to London town.

Ken: autoharp, lap steel, percussion (from A Smooth Road to London Town)

25. She Didn't Dance traditional, adapted and arranged by Celia Lottridge

A lovely dancing song to do with a baby or older child.

She didn't dance, dance, dance (dance with your child in your arms or hand-to-hand)
She didn't dance at all today
She didn't dance, dance, dance, no nor yesterday
So dance her up and up and up and up
Dance her up to the sky (lift child high, or raise your arms up high)
Dance her up and up and up and up, and she'll be down by and by
She is like a lady, she is like a queen, she is like a lady off to the fair at Lynn
So dance her up and up and up and up, dance her up to the sky
Dance her up and up and up and up, and she'll be down by and by.
2nd verse: He didn't dance, dance, dance
He didn't dance at all today, etc.
He is like a gentleman, he is like a king, etc.

Ken: accordion (from A Smooth Road to London Town)

26. From Wibbleton To Wobbleton

When you do this knee bounce, try to keep Wibbleton on one side, and Wobbleton on the other, as you bounce baby from side to side, bouncing in the middle for 15 miles.

From Wibbleton to Wobbleton is fifteen miles,
From Wobbleton to Wibbleton is fifteen miles,
From Wibbleton to Wobbleton,
From Wobbleton to Wibbleton,
From Wibbleton to Wobbleton is fifteen miles.

(from More Tickles and Tunes)

27. Babushka Baio

A lovely Russian lullaby.

Go to sleep my darling baby
Babushka baio.
See the moon is shining on you
Babushka baio.

I will tell you many stories
If you close your eyes
Go to sleep my darling baby
Babushka baio.

Ken: mandocello, mandolins, mandola

28. Baby's Boat

Alice C. D. Riley and Jessie L. Gaynor 1898

Baby's boat's a silver moon
Sailing o'er the sky
Sailing o'er a sea of sleep
While the stars go by.
Chorus: Sail, baby, sail far across the sea
Only don't forget to sail back again to me.

Baby's fishing for a dream
Fishing near and far
Her line, a silver moonbeam is
Her bait, a silver star.

Chorus
