Thank You!

I have been blessed over the years to have been able to do what I love to do. Since I was a child my passion has been music and language. As an adult I have pursued that passion and through my work with children I continue to learn and love the path that I have chosen, or perhaps the path that chose me.

I have had the great pleasure of working with some of the best musicians, and the best producer and engineer in the country. Thank you Ken and Nik.

My family has always been the centre of my universe. Thank you Arnie, Jesse, Hannah and Edward for your love and inspiration.

1. Welcome Summer © SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2015

Welcome summer, birds and bees and butterflies
Welcome summer, wildflowers and berry pies
Summer, summer, my favourite time of the year
Summer, summer, summertime is here.

Welcome summer, lakes and ponds and swimming holes
Welcome summer, campfires and fishing poles
Summer, summer, my favourite time of the year
Summer, summer, summertime is here.

Fireflies on summer nights,
Nesting ducks and birds in flight
Shooting stars and thunderstorms and northern lights and more.

Welcome summer, soft winds whispering through the pines
Welcome summer, ripe tomatoes on the vine
Summer, summer, my favourite time of the year
Summer, summer, summertime is here.

2. Wahoo, Wahoo, Wahoo! © SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2015

I was watching all the action outside in the summer and I had the feeling that if I was a turtle, a squirrel, a puppy or a child, this is how I would feel.

Wahoo wahoo wahoo, I'm a turtle on a sunny day.
Wahoo wahoo wahoo, I'm a turtle on a sunny day.
I swim in the pond, I climb on the rocks, I splash about all day
And when my works all done I sit in the sun
I'm a turtle on a sunny day.
Wahoo wahoo wahoo, I'm a turtle on a sunny day.

Wahoo wahoo wahoo, I'm a puppy on a sunny day.
Wahoo wahoo wahoo, I'm a puppy on a sunny day.
I chase some sticks, I dig some holes, I keep the squirrels away
And when my works all done I sit in the sun
I'm a puppy on a sunny day.
Wahoo wahoo wahoo, I'm a puppy on a sunny day.

Wahoo wahoo wahoo, I'm a squirrel on a sunny day.
Wahoo wahoo wahoo, I'm a squirrel on a sunny day.
I climb some trees, I eat some nuts, I watch the doggies play
And when my works all done I sit in the sun
I'm a squirrel on a sunny day.
Wahoo wahoo wahoo, I'm a squirrel on a sunny day.

Wahoo wahoo wahoo, I'm a kid on a sunny day.
Wahoo wahoo wahoo, I'm a kid on a sunny day.
I run all around, I jump in the lake, I dance and sing and play
And when my works all done I sit in the sun
I'm a kid on a sunny day.
Wahoo wahoo wahoo, I'm a kid on a sunny day.

3. Motorcycle Ride

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2015

When my kids were small Arnie used to play the motorcycle game with them. He would put them on his knees and turn on the motorcycle and bounce them to gales of laughter. When he started doing it with our grandson I decided to write a rhyme to go with it.

Turn the key…vroom vroom vroom
Open the throttle VROOM VROOM, VROOM

Now we're ready for a motorcycle ride
On the road we go side to side
On the hills we go up and down
On the curves we go round and round
And round and round slow down and Stop!

Now turn the key…vroom vroom vroom
Open the throttle VROOM VROOM, VROOM

Now we're ready for a motorcycle ride
Go side to side
Up and down
Round and round and whoops – fall down!

4. Let's Take A Ride In The Country

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2014

Let's take a ride in the country
out on the country road
Through the hills and the valleys down where the river flows.
Sometimes the road is bumpy,
sometimes the road is smooth
But it's always nice in the country
out on the country road.

Here we come to a winding road where the road goes round and round
And round and around and around and around and around and around and around. Chorus

Here we come to a bumpy road and we're bumping up and down.
Sometimes we bump so high in the air that we land right on the ground. Chorus

The hills are high and the valleys low and the rivers deep and wide.
Wildflowers grow by the side of the road out in the countryside. Chorus

5. Phoebe

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2013

The chorus to this is a traditional song. I loved it but thought that it was too short so I made up a few verses. A Phoebe is a small songbird. It is mostly brown with shades of mossy green.

Chorus: Phoebe in her petticoat,
Phoebe in her gown
Phoebe in her petticoat,
Going 'round the town.

Phoebe has a big brown horse
She calls him is Tumbledown
Cause every time she rides that horse
She ends up on the ground. Chorus

Phoebe has a big white house
She lives on Cherry Hill.
She asked me if I'd marry her
One day I think I will. Chorus

Phoebe wears a petticoat,
With ribbons round entwined.
She wears a gown of mossy green
And silken stockings fine. Chorus

6. The Fishing Song Unknown

The fish tale grows bigger each time it is told. Thank you Andy Davis for sharing this.

One time I went a'fishing, a'fishing, a'fishing,
One time I went a'fishing on a summer's day.
And the fish I caught was this big, this big, this big,
The fish I caught was this big, but it got away.

Edward caught a minnow, Jeni caught a frog,
Hannah caught a turtle from underneath a log
But the fish I caught was this big, this big, this big
The fish I caught was this big, but it got away.

Bucky caught a minnow, Benny caught a frog,
Kenny caught a turtle from underneath a log
But the fish I caught was this big, this big, this big
The fish I caught was this big, but it got away.

One time I went a'fishing, a'fishing, a'fishing,
One time I went a'fishing on a summer's day.
And the fish I caught was this big, this big, this big
The fish I caught was this big, but it got away.

7. Swimming Song Louden Wainwright, Snowden Music Inc.

I have loved this song since I heard the McGarrigle Sisters sing it eons ago.

Last summer I went swimming,
Last summer I might have drowned
But I held my breath and I kicked my feet
And I moved my arms around,
I moved my arms around.

Last summer I swam in the ocean,
And I swam in a swimming pool,
Salt my wounds, chlorined my eyes,
I'm a self-destructive fool, a self-destructive fool.

Last summer I swam in a public place
And a reservoir, to boot,
At the latter I was informal,
At the former I wore my suit,
I wore my swimming suit.

Last summer I did the backstroke
And you know that's not all
I did the breast stroke and the butterfly
And the old Australian crawl, the old Australian crawl.

Last summer I did swan dives
And jack-knifes for you all
And once when you weren't looking
I did a cannonball; I did a cannonball.

8. Swimming, Swimming In The Swimming Pool Unknown

This is a favourite camp song. Getting faster each time is another fun thing to do with it.

Swimming, swimming, in the swimming pool
When days are hot when days are cool
In the swimming pool
Breast stroke, side stroke, fancy diving too.
Oh don't you wish you never had Anything else to do…but

9. This Fine Old Woman © SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2014

This can be done simply by holding up the thumb on one hand for the woman or man and using the fingers on the other hand to count out the birds. I wrote this as a finger exercise and it is a lovely song for a grandparent to sing to her grandchildren.

This fine old woman saw one little bird, (Hold up the thumb on one hand for the old woman or old man, then pinch your index finger with your thumb for the bird)
Two little birds, three little birds. (Add the middle finger for 2 birds and the ring finger for 3 birds,)
This fine old woman saw four little birds. (Add the baby finger for 4 birds)
And they fluttered and they flew away. (Flutter fingers and move them away)

Chorus: They flew away, they flew away (Flutter fingers and move them all around)
They flew so far away.
This fine old woman saw 5 little birds. (Hold up all 5 fingers in the air and flutter them)
And they fluttered and they flew away.

(Use the other hand)
This fine old man saw one little bird, two little birds, three little birds.
This fine old man saw four little birds
And they fluttered and they flew away.

(Make a snake by wiggling the index finger then add the others)
This fine old woman saw one little snake, two little snakes, three little snakes.
This fine old woman saw four little snakes
They slithered and they slid away.

They slid away, they slid away, they slid so far away.
This fine old woman saw 5 little snakes
And they slithered and they slid away.

This fine old man saw one little snake, two little snakes, three little snakes.
This fine old man saw four little snakes
They slithered and they slid away.

10. My Little Dog © SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman and Ken Whiteley 2015

I started writing this a few years ago when our Golden Retriever Falkor and her Black Lab pal Samson were frisky puppies.

My little dog has a great big nose (one hand makes the dog, middle finger is the head)
She sniffs the ground wherever she goes (middle finger 'sniffs the ground)
She lifts her head to smell the breeze (raise middle finger keeping others on the ground)
And chases squirrels up the apple trees. (make a tree with the other hand - run the dog up the tree)

Her friend Sam likes to snoop around (make another dog with other hand)
Looking for bones hidden underground (hand sniffs the ground)
When he finds one watch him go
Burrowing fast to the treasure below. (fingers dig)

All day long from dawn till dark (act out actions)
They chase and play, and growl and bark
They chew on sticks, pretend to fight
They roll, they run but they never bite.

When the sun goes down at the end of the day (put one arm out flat across your body for horizon, and make a C with the other hand for sun. Bring the sun down below horizon.)
And the moon comes up they start to bay (moon is a C that taps the side of forehead)
They howl at the moon then to bed they creep (make dogs howl)
And they curl up together and go to sleep. (lie dogs down curled up together)

Ken: National guitar

11. Maggie's In The Weeds

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2014

Maggie Muggins is my silly golden retriever.

Maggie's in the weeds, looking for a frog.
Maggie's in the weeds, looking for a frog.
A frog or a minnow or a toad or a log,
Maggie's my good old dog.

Chorus: Here girl, you good old girl
Here girl you good old girl.
A frog or a minnow or a toad or a log,
Maggie's my good old dog.

Maggie's on the beach digging in the sand.
Maggie's on the beach digging in the sand.
Digging in the sand or digging on the land.
Maggie's my good old dog.

Chorus: Here girl, you good old girl
Here girl you good old girl.
Digging in the sand or digging on the land
Maggie's my good old dog.

Maggie's in the field chasing butterflies.
Maggie's in the field chasing butterflies.
Chasing butterflies or a cloud in the sky
Maggie's my good old dog.

Chorus: Here girl, you good old girl
Here girl you good old girl.
Chasing butterflies or a cloud in the sky.
Maggie's my good old dog.

12. Listen Listen And Learn

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman
and Ken Whiteley 2015

I was trying to think of a way to ask parents to participate in my music classes and concerts. I don't know if this will get that message across but I do like the sentiment and the song.

Listen to what your child says
Listen to what your mama says
Listen to what your teacher says
Listen…and learn

Listen to the wind that blows
Listen the trees
Listen to the barking dogs
Listen to the bees.

Watch what your child does
Watch what your mama does
Watch what your teacher does
Watch…and learn

Watch the setting sun
Watch the flowers grow
Watch the rain come down
And watch the rainbows glow.

13. Wild Bee Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2014

This is a song that focuses on the various types of bees that contribute to pollinating our flower and food plants. It can be a catalyst for discussing the different bee genuses and their differences.

Wild bee buzzing in the garden
Wild bee buzzing all around
Wild bee pollinating flowers
Wild bee buzzing all around

Honey bee
Bumble Bee
Carpenter
Forest Bees
Meadow Bees
Hornets
Wasps
All the Bees

14. Head And Thorax

(tune: There's a Tavern in the Town or Head and Shoulders) author unknown

This action song is a lesson about the parts of an insect…or in our case a bee. Discussion could follow about the differences between our body parts and those of a bee.

Head, thorax, abdomen, abdomen
Head, thorax, abdomen, abdomen
Compound eyes, antennae and six legs
Head, thorax, abdomen, abdomen.

Bucky: drums
Harmony: Hannah and Ken
Ken: piano, harmony

15. Picking Berries

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2015

Pick them low pick them high
Juicy berries for a pie
Pick them low pick them high
Put them in my basket

1. Raspberries, raspberries
2. Blueberries, blueberries
3. Blackberries, blackberries
4. Strawberries, strawberries
5. Gooseberries, gooseberries
6. Huckleberries, huckleberries
7. Bumbleberries, bumbleberries

Yum!

16. Hoosen Johnny traditional

The little black bull went down the meadow
Hoosen Johnny, Hoosen Johnny
The little black bull went down the meadow
Long time ago.

Long time ago, long time ago.
The little black bull went down the meadow
Long time ago.

2. First he pawed and then he bellow
3. He whet his horn on a white oak sapling
4. He shake his tail he jar the meadow
5. He pawed the dirt in the heifer's faces

17. Honest Jack

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2012

I was thinking about Jack tales and this chorus popped into my head. It took many years to put the whole song together.

Down the road went Honest Jack
Can you hear his feet go whickety whack
People wave when he goes by
With a smile on his face and a twinkle in his eye.

Chorus: Oh Jack, Honest Jack
Oh Jack won't you come on back?
Oh Jack, Honest Jack
Oh Jack won't you come on back?

Now Jack's a lad with a handsome face
He travels around from place to place.
If you've got a job that's big or small
Jack's the lad can do them all.

Jack won't lie and Jack won't cheat
A finer lad you'll never meet.
But he won't stay he'll have to run
He'll be gone by the setting sun.

18. I'm Going To Take A Bath

© SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2014

Here's a little song to make bathtime even more fun.

I'm going to take a bath a bath a bath
I'm going to take a bath to wash the dirt away.
Away, away to wash the dirt away. x2

I'm going to wash my hands.
I'm going to wash my feet
I'm going to wash my face
I'm going to wash my ears

19. Going Down The Old Camp Road © SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2012

This was written for Campers Week at Pinewoods Camp, near Buzzards Bay Massachusetts. After a long day of classes, crafts, dancing, singing and playing the youngest campers are sung off to their cabins by a pied piper.

Chorus: We're going down the old camp road to bed
Going down the old camp road
We're going down the old camp road to bed
Going down the old camp road

Saying goodnight to all of our friends
We'll see you in the morning when we'll play again. Chorus

We played some games, we had some fun
We sang and danced and jumped in the pond. Chorus

We'll stop at each cabin along the way
We'll say goodnight, I hope you had a good day. Chorus

We hear sweet music playing through the night
And somebody's calling – every thing's alright. Chorus
