

Kathy Reid-Naiman makes children's music so accessible that some adults secretly confess to listening to it just for themselves. Her songs bring the comfort of tradition and the sweetness of nostalgia – as well as the thrill of novelty and innovation to young listeners, and their caregivers too. This is her 16th CD of songs and fingerplays for very young children. Many of her recordings have been included in Newborn Literacy Kits distributed by Early Years Centres and Library Associations to families in many Canadian provinces in an effort to encourage parental involvement in early learning and literacy.

Hannah Shira Naiman is a children's music educator, performer, and singer-songwriter based in North Bay, Ontario. If you listen closely, you can hear Hannah's voice singing harmony on all of Kathy's recordings, however this is the third album Hannah has released for children with her own voice in the lead. When she is not singing for children in french daycares and schools, Hannah performs her original Appalachian music for grown-ups across Canada.

Kathy and Hannah often work together in libraries and schools and collaborated on 'Here We Go Zodeo' a CD of singing games and dances. This is their first bilingual recording. Hannah will be releasing a new French CD - C'est une belle journée in early 2018.

2. Sweetest Little Baby in the Country Oh © Kathy Reid-Naiman 2016

This was written for Hannah's yet to be born Etta-Rose and she is indeed the sweetest little baby in the country!

You've got 10 little fingers and 10 little toes
2 bright eyes and a button nose
Sweet as honey and everybody knows
You're the sweetest little baby in the country oh.

Chorus: Baby Oh, I want you to know
You're the sweetest little baby in the country oh
Baby oh, baby oh
The sweetest little baby in the country oh

You've got your daddy's dimples and your mommy's grin
Red rosy cheeks and a double chin
Cute as a bunny and everybody knows
You're the sweetest little baby in the country oh.

4. Stroke the Bunny © SOCAN Kathy Reid-Naiman 2014

With your thumb, stroke each finger on the same hand twice, from the fingertip down to the palm, for each animal. Use the other hand for the second half of the verse. I wrote this as an exercise for my hands.

You can stroke the bunny, You can stroke the cat,
You can stroke the puppy and the little white rat.
You can stroke the hamster, you can stroke the ferret,
you can stroke the gerbil and maybe the parrot

But please everybody listen to this
Please, please, please Don't stroke the fish.

You can pat the bunny. Etc.
(tap the tips of your fingers with your thumb on the same hand)

You can tickle the bunny. etc
(use your thumb to tap the bottom of each finger on the same hand)

You can kiss the bunny.

A monkey and a hound and an old grey mare
Went out one day to the country fair
The monkey fell down
The hound turned around
And the old grey mare ran through the town.

Le singe est tombé
Le chien s'est retourné
et la vielle jument partie en gallopant!

19. The Cookie Song © Julie Martin

This is a fun game to play with a group of children and some colourful "cookies". Each child takes a turn singing for their cookie (ie.,"green if you please") until all the children have a cookie and can gobble them up!

At the bakery on my street
There are rainbow coloured cookies for to eat
Maddie went inside and she did say
Green if you please?
Thank you and good day!

Last time: At the bakery on my street
There are rainbow coloured cookies for to eat
My friends went inside and they ate them up
Yum, yum, yum, yum, yum.
Yum, yum, yum, yum, yum.

21. Sweet and Low

Alfred, Lord Tennyson,
Music: Joseph Barnby

We learned this beautiful lullaby from Suzannah and Georgia Rose Park.

Sweet and low, sweet and low,
Wind of the western sea,
Low, low, breathe and blow,
Wind of the western sea!
Over the rolling waters go,
Come from the dying moon, and blow,
Blow him again to me,
While my little one,
While my pretty one, sleeps.

Sleep and rest, sleep and rest,
Father will come to thee soon;
Rest, rest, on mother's breast,
Father will come to thee soon;
Father will come to his babes in the nest,
Over the seas come from the west,
Under the silvery moon;
While my little one,
While my pretty one, sleeps.

Ken: guitar, Sharlene: harp
