Bucky: conga Chris: harmonica Dennis: electric bass Ken: guitar, fretless banjo, shakers Nik: guiro Mark: steel drums.

It's a beautiful day, it's a beautiful day
It's a beautiful day for singing. (X2)
Singing singing it's a beautiful day for singing.

2. Dancing 3. Jumping 4. Twirling

2. Going for a Walk Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2004 SOCAN
I wrote this song while I was walking with my dog; the sun was shining and I felt like skipping.
Grit: concertina Ken: tenor banjo, mandocello Sharlene: harp.

1. I'm going for a walk on a sunny day
Looking at the wildflowers on my way
Laughing at the squirrels as they run and play
Going for a walk on a sunny day.

2. I'm going for a walk on a rainy day
Splashing in the puddles on my way
Laughing at the ducks as they dive and play
Going for a walk on a rainy day.

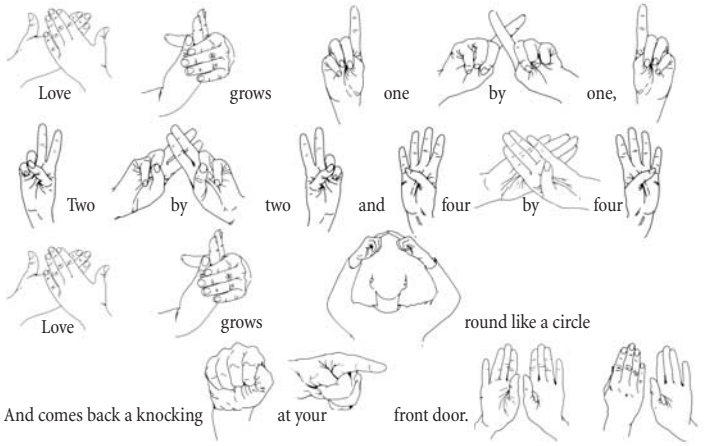

3. I'm going for a walk on a windy day
Watching all the sailboats on the bay
Laughing at the trees as they bend and sway
Going for a walk on a windy day.

4. I'm going for a walk on a snowy day
Making snow angels on my way
Laughing at the kids sliding on their sleigh
Going for a walk on a snowy day.

3. Jarvis to Port Dover Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2003 SOCAN
This catchy little knee bounce popped into my head after driving around the back roads of rural Ontario.
Ken: Calliope.

While going down a bumpy road
From Jarvis to Port Dover
My wheel got stuck inside a rut
And I went tumbling over! Whoops!
Over, whoops! Over, whoops! and I went tumbling over, whoops!

4. Love Grows One by One Carol Johnson © 1981, Noeldner Music, BMI.
I like to do hand signs on the chorus of this beautiful song.
Ken: acoustic guitar, bass, harmony Dennis: bass Mark: steel drums.

1. Note by note we make a song,
Voice by voice we sing it
Choir by choir we fill up the world
With the music that we bring it.

Chorus: Love grows one by one,
Two by two and four by four
Love grows round like a circle
And comes back a knocking at your front door.

2. So let me take your hand, my friend
We'll each take the hand of another
One by one we'll reach for all
Our sisters and our brothers.

Chorus: Love grows one by one,
Two by two and four by four
Love grows round like a circle
And comes back a knocking at your front door.

5. Jack's House Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2003 SOCAN

The inspiration for this came from the traditional rhyme, 'This is the house that Jack Built'.

Bucky: drums Dennis: electric bass Ken: guitar, lap steel.

Spoken:

This is the house that Jack built

With windows walls and a floor,

A roof to keep the rain out

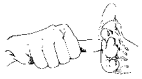

And a peep hole in the door.

This is the key to Jack's house

It opens up the lock

But if you haven't got the key

You're going to have to knock.

Now, Jack has built a little house
He's built it on a hill
And if he hasn't moved away
I guess he lives there still.
He's built it for his lovely wife
Two children, a dog and a cat
And when the house was finished
He put out the welcome mat. Chorus:

This is the house that Jack built
With windows walls and a floor,
A roof to keep the rain out
And a peep hole in the door
This is the key to Jack's house
It opens up the lock
But if you haven't got the key...
You're going to have to knock.
Knock, knock, knock, knock
You're going to have to knock.

Now Jack has built a little house
Put carpets on the floor
Put curtains on the windows
And he's painted the walls and doors.
He's built a cozy fireplace
To keep them from the cold
And there they live quite happily
Or so I have been told. Chorus:

6. The Truck Song Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2000 SOCAN

Ask the children for suggestions for trucks that work on buildings or roads and make up an action for the truck. There can be as many trucks as you like…you just need to remember the order. Other favourites are 'the steamroller rolls all over the ground', the 'cement mixer pours the foundation down', and 'the front end loader puts the bricks over there.'

1. They're building a building in the middle of town,
   And I can see the trucks moving all around,
   Each one has a job to do
   Cause they're all part of the building crew.
   The dump truck hauls all the dirt away
   Cause he's a part of the building crew.
2. They're building a building in the middle of town,
   And I can see the trucks moving all around,
   Each one has a job to do
   Cause they're all part of the building crew.
   The excavator digs: dig, dig dig,
   The dump truck hauls all the dirt away
   Cause they're all part of the building crew.
3. They're building a building…
   The bulldozer moves the rubble all around
   The excavator digs: dig, dig dig,
   The dump truck hauls all the dirt away
   Cause they're all part of the building crew.
4. They're building a building …
   The crane takes the beam to the top of the roof
   The bulldozer moves the rubble all around
   The excavator digs: dig, dig dig,
   The dump truck hauls all the dirt away
   Cause they're all part of the building crew.
5. They're building a building…
   The wrecking ball smashes the old building down
   The crane takes the beam to the top of the roof
   The bulldozer moves the rubble all around
   The excavator digs: dig, dig dig,
   The dump truck hauls all the dirt away
   Cause they're all part of the building crew.

7. We're Tapping Kathy Reid-Naiman © 1998 SOCAN

Bucky: drums Dennis: electric bass Ken: electric guitar, percussion.

We're tapping, we're tapping
We're tapping tapping tapping
We're tapping, we're tapping
We're tapping now we stop!

We're ringing, we're ringing
We're ringing ringing ringing
We're ringing, we're ringing
We're ringing now we stop!

8. Everybody Says Malvina Reynolds Schroder Music

This song is good for those times when the children just need to move around.

Bucky: drums Dennis: electric bass Ken: guitar, claves, harmony Kathy: harmony Mark: steel drums.

Everybody says sit down sit down,
Everybody says sit down.
But I can't sit down no I can't sit down
'Cause my feet are all full of dance around.

Chorus: Bump deedle um bum, bump a dee
Everybody bump a deedle dance with me
Bump deedle um bum, bump a dee
Everybody bump a deedle dance with me.

Everybody says be good be good
Everybody says be good
But they don't understand I'm as good as good
'Cause dancing around is what I should.

Everybody says what's wrong, what's wrong
Everybody says what's wrong.
But there's nothing wrong when I'm singing my song
But you'd better watch out if I'm quiet too long.

9. Maloney the Pony Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2004 SOCAN

When I was three my parents bought me a beautiful red rocking horse.
I rode it and loved it until I was way too big for it. I still have it.

Dennis: double bass Ken: guitar Chris: harmonica.

I once had a pony whose name was Maloney
His back it was boney, his legs they were thin
But when he was saddled with reins, bit and bridle
Maloney could gallop as fast as the wind.

Chorus: Galloping galloping over the meadows
Galloping galloping over the plain
Galloping galloping over the rolling hills
and Galloping galloping back home again.

Maloney was red as the sunrise at morning
His mane and his tail were as black as the coal
His eyes were like diamonds that sparkled and twinkled
A horse like Maloney's more precious than gold.

The years have passed by and Maloney's retired
He lives in the stable behind the back door
But when I have children I'll wash him and paint him
They'll rock him and ride him and love him once more.

10. Reaching for the Stars! Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2004 SOCAN

Climb up an imaginary ladder and fall down. Then do it again and again!

Kathy: bowed pysaltry.

I am reaching for the stars, I am climbing up to Mars
I think I might never stop
I hope I don't drop…Kerplop!

11. The Cold Winds are Blowing Kathy Reid-Naiman ©1998 SOCAN

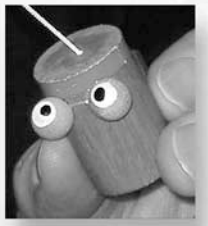

Act out the words and pretend to be very cold. Ask for suggestions for things you could wrap yourself up in to keep warm. Ken played each note by blowing over the top of water filled bottles.

Ken: bottles and rattles and quica (tiny friction drum).

The cold winds are blowing they're howling round my door.
I'm freezing, I'm sneezing,
Hear the north winds roar.

My head's cold, my back's cold my knees are shaking too.
My hands are cold, my toes are cold,
I don't know what to do.

I'll wrap myself in a blanket, and I won't go out in the storm,
I'll sit by the fireside,
Till I feel nice and warm.

(quica)

12. Hello Rain © Marcia Berman used by permission

I love to sing this song about being happy that it is raining instead of complaining about it.

Debbie, Eve: harmony Ken: piano, rain stick, harmony, electric bass Mark: steel drums Sharlene: harp.

It's raining today, it's raining today
Hello rain, hello rain
We'd like to play outside today
We'd like to play outside
Hello rain, hello rain

Raindrops fall, rain drops falling down
Everywhere all around me
Raindrops fall, rain drops falling down
Everywhere all around.

It's raining today, it's raining today
Hello rain, hello rain
We'd like to play outside today
We'd like to play outside
Hello rain, hello rain.

13. Picking Buttercups Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2004 SOCAN

You can act out the words while singing any child's name.

Kathy: banjo ukelele Ken: ukeleles, wash-tub bass, dobro.

Lucy's in the tall grass picking buttercups
She picks one she picks two and then she stands up
The grass is so tall and Lucy's so small
When Lucy's picking buttercups you can't see her at all.
Jump up Lucy, show us where you are
Jump up Lucy, show us where you are.

14. I Went Down into the Barnyard Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2000 SOCAN

Walk around in a circle until the animal is named and then do as the lyrics suggest.

Bucky: drums Chris: trumpet Dennis: electric bass Ken: guitar.

Oh I went down into the barnyard,
Just to see the animals there.
And there were cows out in the barnyard,
They were standing everywhere.
And they went moo, moo, moo, moo
As they just stood around all day.
And they went moo, moo, moo, moo
For that was all they had to say.

Oh I went down into the barnyard,
Just to see the animals there.
And there were ducks out in the barnyard,
They were waddling everywhere.
And they went quack, quack, quack, quack
As they just waddled around all day.
And they went quack, quack, quack, quack
For that was all they had to say.

Oh I went down into the barnyard,
Just to see the animals there.
And there were pigs out in the barnyard,
They were rolling everywhere.
And they went oink, oink, oink, oink,
As they just rolled around all day.
And they went oink, oink, oink, oink,
For that was all they had to say.

Oh I went down into the barnyard,
Just to see the animals there.
And there were horses out in the barnyard,
They were galloping everywhere.
And they went neigh, neigh, neigh, neigh,
As they just galloped around all day.
And they went neigh, neigh, neigh, neigh,
For that was all they had to say.

15. Ducks in the Millpond Alan Lomax, John A. Lomax Ludlow Music Inc.

I have an affinity for nonsense words so this old traditional song appealed to me; the chorus has no meaning as far as I know. Arnie is singing the melody on the choruses and I am singing harmony.

Arnie: fretless banjo Kathy: dulcimer Ken: shaker.

Ducks in the millpond, geese in the clover
Fell in the millpond, wet all over/

Chorus: Lawd, gonna get on a rinktum
Lawd lawd gonna get on a rinktum.

Ducks in the millpond, geese in the clover
Jumped on the bed and the bed turned over.

Monkey in the barnyard, monkey in the stable
Monkey get your hair cut, soon as you're able.

I had a little pony and his name was Jack
I put him in a stable and he jumped through a crack.

Ducks in the millpond, geese on the ocean
Hug them pretty girls if I take a notion.

Ducks in the millpond, geese in the clover
Fell in the millpond, wet all over.

16. The Pie Song Kathy Reid-Naiman © 1995 SOCAN

I change the name of the fair every time I sing it in a new place. I like to make it seem like I'm singing about a local event. Ask the children to name their favourite pies. You can have more pennies so that more children can choose a flavour or the price of pies could go up and you might need dollars instead of pennies. The last time ask them to think of the pie they wanted to say but didn't have a chance to say it, then they can call it out.

Bucky: drums Dennis: electric bass Ken: tenor banjo, pennywhistle, mouth trumpets, jaw harp, accordion.

I went down to the County fair,
I had 5 pennies and I spent one there.
I bought an apple pie and I took it home,
I put it on the shelf and I sang this song:
Pie pie pie pie, I can't get enough of that apple pie.
Pie, pie, pie pie, I can't get enough of that pie.

Raspberry pie
Blueberry pie
Cherry
Lemon Meringue

Last verse:
I went down to the County fair,
I had no money to pay the fare.
I didn't buy a pie to put on the shelf,
So if you want anymore you can sing it yourself.

17. With a Tick and a Tock Kathy Reid-Naiman© 1999 SOCAN

This is a stick tapping rhyme. I use these two separately when I am working with a class. My Grandfather Clock is a good one for teaching slow and fast.

Kathy and Ken: claves and vocals.

With a tick and a tock and a tick and a tock
The clock goes on all day.
With a tick and a tock and a tick and a tock
That's all it has to say.
With a tick and a tock and a tick and a tock
It just goes on and on.
And on and on and on and on
And on and on and on.

My Grandfather Clock
My grandfather clock goes
'tick tock tick tock' (slowly)
My little kitchen clock goes
'tick tock tick tock tick tock tick tock' (Tap a little faster)
My little wrist watch goes'
tick tick tick tick tick tick tick tick STOP! (quickly)

18. Horsey Ken Whiteley © 2002 pair-a-dice music SOCAN

Pony songs are always fun. Just make sure that everyone is going in the same direction around the room so that there is less chance for collisions.

Bucky: drums Dennis: double bass Erynn: fiddle Ken: piano.

Walk horsey walk walk horsey walk
People watch as you pass by
And you hold your head up high
Walk horsey walk.

Trot horsey trot, trot horsey trot
Feel the earth beneath your feet
As you're going down the street
Trot horsey trot.

Gallop horsey gallop, gallop horsey gallop
Feel the wind blow in your face
While you move from place to place
Gallop horsey gallop.

Run horsey run, run horsey run
I'll hold on tightly to your reins
While we race across the plains
Run horsey run.
Run, Gallop, trot, walk, whoa, horsey whoa.

19. This is the Boat Unknown

This is a magical fingerplay. I love the imagery that is conjured up by the gold and silver and ivory.

This is the boat, the golden boat,

That sails on the silvery sea, (undulate hands like waves)

And these are the oars of ivory white,

That lift and dip, that lift and dip (raise and lower 'oars')

Here are ten little fairy men

Running along, running along,

To take the oars of ivory white (actions as before for the last lines)

That lift and dip and lift and dip,
That move the boat, the golden boat,
Over the silvery sea.

20. Little Boat Malvina Reynolds Schroder Music

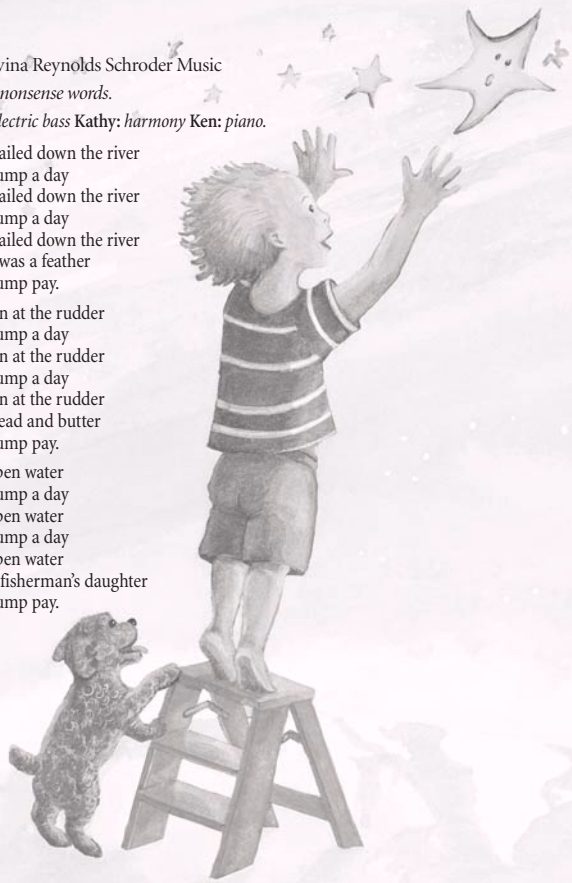

A happy little song with nonsense words.

Bucky: drums Dennis: electric bass Kathy: harmony Ken: piano.

There was a little boat sailed down the river
Cum peedle um pum pump a day
There was a little boat sailed down the river
Cum peedle um pum pump a day
There was a little boat sailed down the river
Hull was a cup and sail was a feather
Cum peedle um pum pump pay.

There was a little captain at the rudder
Cum peedle um pum pump a day
There was a little captain at the rudder
Cum peedle um pum pump a day
There was a little captain at the rudder
Stoked his engine on bread and butter
Cum peedle um pum pump pay.

When he came to the open water
Cum peedle um pum pump a day
When he came to the open water
Cum peedle um pum pump a day
When he came to the open water
He waved his hat to the fisherman's daughter
Cum peedle um pum pump pay.

21. The Little Cat Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2004 SOCAN

One child lies on the floor in the middle of a circle of children pretending to be a sleeping cat. The others pretend to be mice and act out the words.

Arnie: banjo, guitar Erynn: fiddle Kathy: dulcimer.

The little cat sat in the middle of the room, and everybody thought she was sleeping
When out of their nest through the hole in the wall all the little mice came creeping

Creep along creep along, hush the kitty cat is sleeping
Creep along, creep along, don't let the kitty catch you creeping.

The little cat opened up one little eye, but nobody saw she was peeping
The little cat opened up both little eyes, you see she wasn't really sleeping

Run away, run away, go back to your nest better scurry
Run away run away, here comes the kitty better hurry.

22. Shake it to the East Kathy Reid-Naiman © 1996 SOCAN

A song for shakers.

Bucky: conga Dennis: electric bass Kathy: harmony, shakers Ken: acoustic guitar, tenor guitar, shakers Mark: steel drums.

This is just a simple song for shakers.
Shake it to the east, shake it to the west
Shake it all around and then you take a rest.
Shake your shakers up, shake your shakers down
Shake it, shake it, shake it and then you settle down.

23. The Meeting in the Building traditional adapted

This is a good song for ending a music class.

The meeting in the building will soon be over
Soon be over, soon be over,
The meeting in the building will soon be over
All over this land.

Chorus:
All over this land my children, all over this land.
All over this land my children, all over this land.

24. Tom Thumb Unknown

I love this little fingerplay story. It is a circular tale that can be repeated over and over and over.

Now I'll tell you a story and this story is new,
So listen very carefully, and do as I do.
This is Tom Thumb - and this is Tom Thumb's house,
These are Tom Thumb's windows and this is Squeaky, Tom Thumb's mouse.
One morning very early when the sun began to shine;
Squeaky mouse got out of bed and counted up to nine.
1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9…
Then Squeaky made a jump and landed right on Tom Thumb's bed;
She quickly ran up Tom Thumb's arm and sat on Tom Thumb's head.
Squeaky pulled his hair and Squeaky pulled his nose,
Until Tom Thumb jumped out of bed and put on all his clothes.
Then they sat down to breakfast
And they ate a crust of bread,
And when that was all quite finished
Here's what Tom Thumb said:
Now I'll tell you a story and this story is new,…

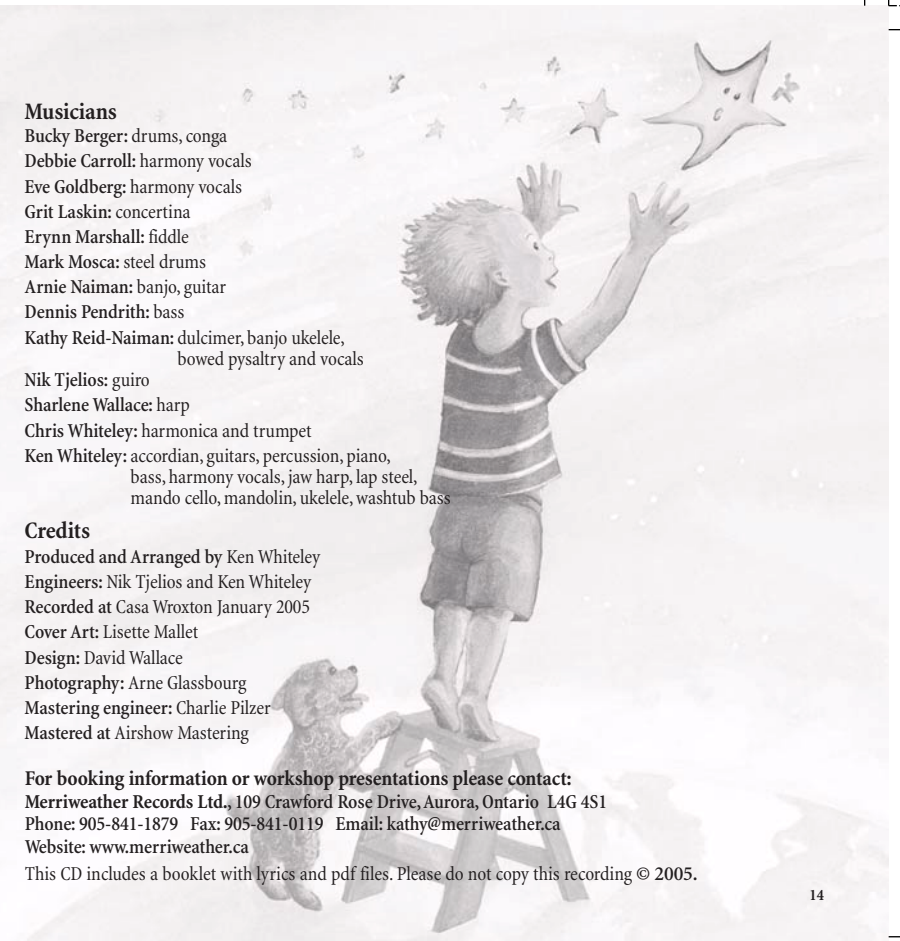

25. Goodbye my Friends Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2004 SOCAN

Kathy Reid-Naiman has been working and playing with children in schools and libraries throughout Ontario since 1980. This is her sixth recording. Her fourth CD "A Smooth Road to London Town" was included in the Newborn Literacy Kits that were distributed to all newborn babies in Ontario by the Government of Ontario's Early Years Centres.

Kathy has presented teaching workshops for the American Library Association, Ontario Library Association, the Southern Ontario Libraries Services, Frontier College, the National Association for the Education of the Young Child, the California Association for the Education of the Young Child and the Children's Music Network's national gatherings to name just a few.

I have been writing songs all of my life. When I was a young child I used to sing all the time; on the swings, on my rocking horse, sitting on my grandmother's front porch and anywhere else that I happened to be. I seldom knew the words to any songs so I made them up as I went along. Things haven't changed much since then, only now I keep a small tape recorder handy for when inspiration strikes. I am very excited about this project because although I have been making up songs for a long time this is the first time I've recorded almost a whole CD of them.

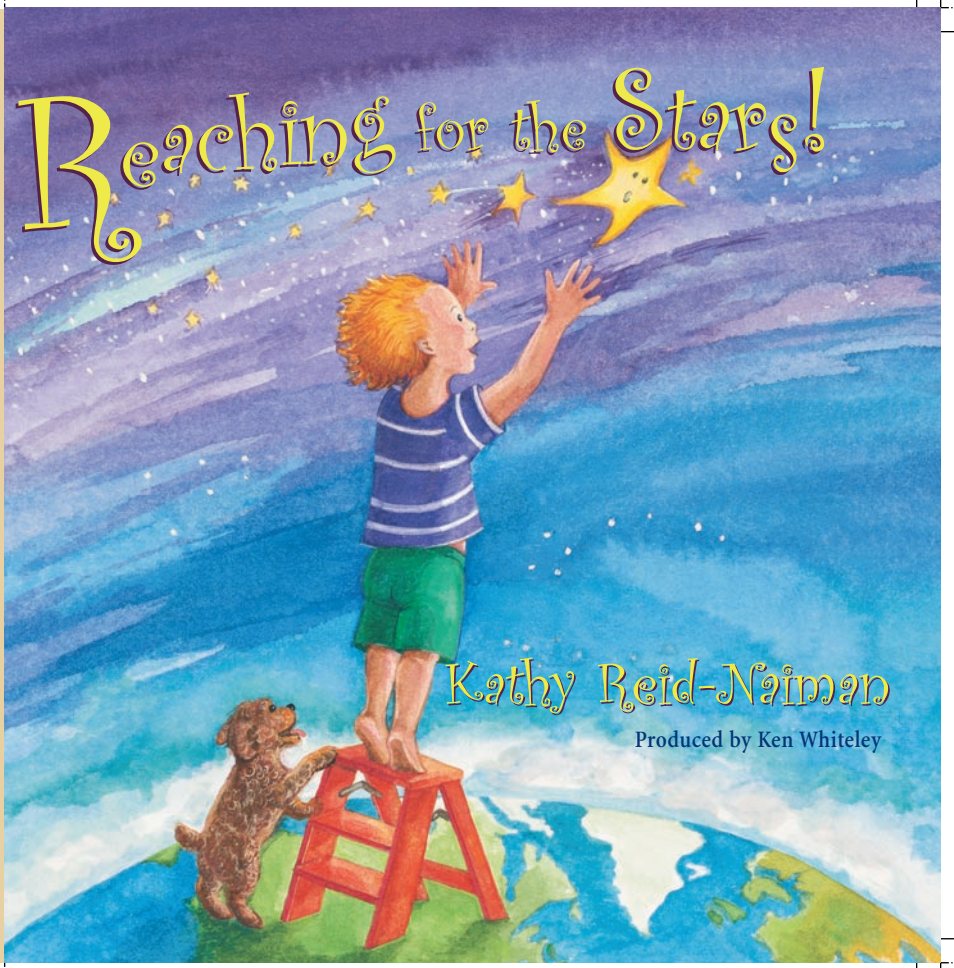

Kathy and her husband Arnie and their dog Falkor live in Aurora Ontario Canada.

Thank You!

There are many people who have helped make this recording what it is – Ken who continues to be not only the best producer in the world but a very dear friend, Nik who twiddled the knobs so deftly, Lisette and David who do all the art work and liner notes and put up with my many many requests for changes and the musicians who played and sang so beautifully: Bucky, Dennis, Sharlene, Chris, Mark, Arnie, Eve, Debbie, Grit and Erynn. Thank you all!

My biggest thank you goes to Arnie for everything he does to fill my life with joy.

Thank you all for helping me Reach for the Stars!
