The Parent-Child Mother Goose Program

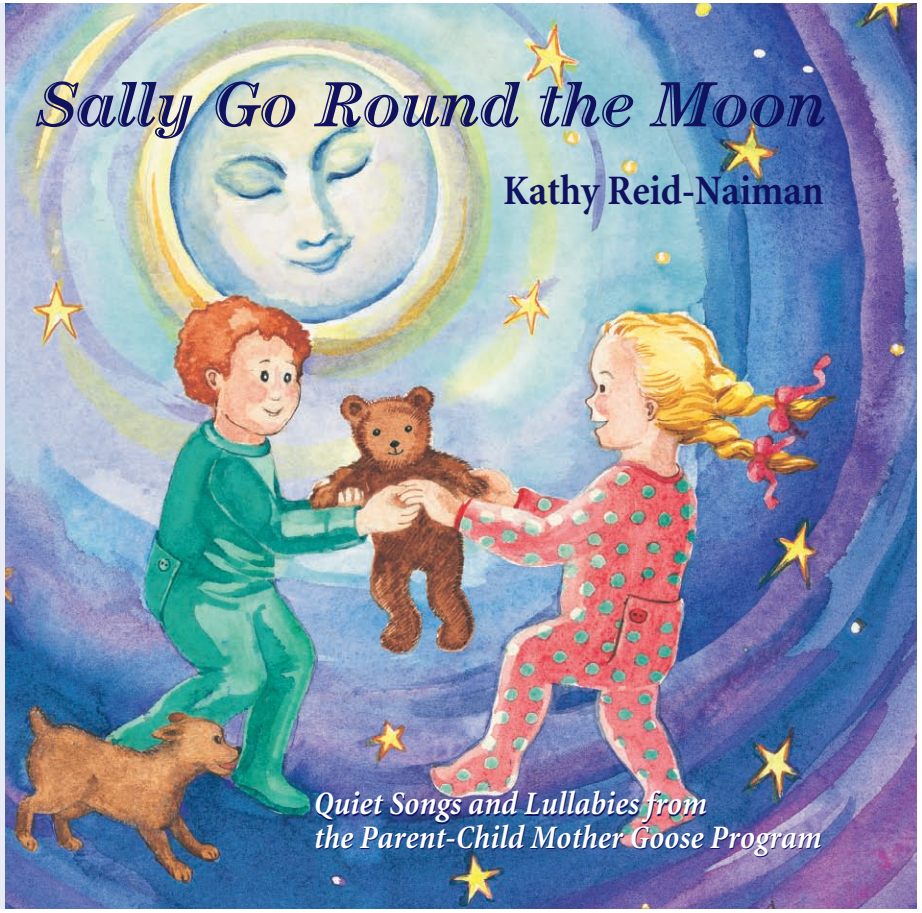

The parents, babies and young children who come to the Parent-Child Mother Goose Program take great joy in learning and sharing rhymes and songs together. 'On Sally Go Round the Sun' you will find many of our favourites for lively times and on 'Sally Go Round the Moon' wonderful lullabies and quiet songs. Other great songs from the program can be found on the CD 'A Smooth Road to London Town'. We hope you will weave these words and melodies into your own family life. Enjoy them by listening to the recording, and when the songs and rhymes are familiar to you, have even more fun singing them and saying them to and with your children. Bedtime, bath time, in the car, at the playground; there are endless possibilities for good times with all of these gems. We have given you a few suggestions for using the rhymes and songs but you will find your own actions and can change the pacing to suit your child and the occasion. Have a wonderful time!

The Parent-Child Mother Goose Program is a non-profit charitable organisation.

The Parent-Child Mother Goose Program

1. May There Always Be Sunshine Arkady Ostrovsky and Tom Botting Universal Music Corp.

The words for this song were written by a young Russian school boy, Lev Oshanin. It was put to music and later translated into English. The profound meaning of the words strikes a chord with us all.

May there always be sunshine
May there always be blue skies
May there always be mama
May there always be me

May there always be sunshine
May there always be blue skies
May there always be papa
May there always be me

Chris – harmonica
Kathy – harmony vocals
Ken – guitar, bass

2. My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean

This is a beautiful old song to sing to your child at bedtime or any time.

My Bonnie lies over the ocean
My Bonnie lies over the sea
My Bonnie lies over the ocean
Oh bring back my Bonnie to me

Chorus: Bring back, bring back
Bring back my Bonnie to me, to me
Bring back, bring back
Oh bring back my Bonnie to me

Oh blow ye the winds o'er the ocean
And blow ye the winds o'er the sea
Oh blow ye the winds o'er the ocean
And bring back my Bonnie to me Chorus

The winds have blown over the ocean
The winds have blown over the sea
The winds have blown over the ocean
And brought back my Bonnie to me Chorus

Chris – trumpet
Debbie – harmony vocals
Ken – piano, guitar, harmony vocals
William – trombone

3. When the Day is Over © 2007 Debbie Carroll

A rhyme to say while getting ready for bed.

When the day is over and the sun goes down
And the king of the valley takes off his crown
Then the queen of the valley takes off her socks
And she wiggles her toes as she rocks, rocks, rocks

4. Up and Over the Moon!
© Debbie Carroll SOCAN

We walk along a country road
After the sun goes down
The Milky Way above our heads
Up and over the moon!

Chorus: Up and over the moon, baby
Up and over the moon
Count the planets, touch the stars
Up and over the moon

If we're in the city after dark
I look at the sky with you
The Great Big Dipper shining bright
Up and over the moon! chorus:

There's a window near your bed
Close the curtains soon
And dream a dream of far away
And up and over the moon! chorus:

Kathy – harmony vocals
Ken – claves electric bass, electric guitars, drums, harmony vocals, shakers, triangle vibraphone

5. You Are My Sunshine
Jimmie Davis and Charles Mitchell, © Peer International Corp.

This country song makes a fine lullaby or it can be an upbeat dancing song. You can change the last two lines if you want to – the song can have a happy ending.

You are my sunshine, my only sunshine
You make me happy when skies are grey
You'll never know dear how much I love you
Please don't take my sunshine away.

The other day, dear, while I was sleeping
I dreamt I held you in my arms
When I awoke dear I was mistaken
So I hung my head and I cried.

Chris – harmonica
Ken – piano, guitar, bass, harmony vocals
Mary – harmony vocals

6. Mr. Moon/The Cuckoo

These two songs can be sung separately or together. There is nothing as wonderful as hearing a roomful of people singing together and these ones are easy to teach and sing. (previously released on 'On My way to Dreamland', Merriweather Records Ltd.).

Mr. Moon

Mr. Moon, Mr. Moon,
You're out too soon,
The sun is still in the sky.
Go back into your bed,
And cover up your head,
Until the day goes by.

The Cuckoo

Twas on a summer's evening,
I walked the forest through,
When suddenly I heard it, a soft and sweet cuckoo.
Cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo.
Cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo.

Kathy, Hannah – vocals

7. Yo Te Amo © Uncle Ruthie Buell

You can sing your child's name in this lullaby and it can be sung in many languages.

Yo te amo, yo te amo, all day long I'm going to sing my little song
Yo te amo, yo te amo, baby, I love you

Je t'aime, Je t'aime, all day long I'm going to sing my little song
Je t'aime, Je t'aime, baby, I love you

I love you; I love you all day long I'm going to sing my little song
I love you, I love you, baby, I love you

Anne – violin
Ken – guitar, electric bass

8. Tall Trees (Australian aboriginal)

Jane Cobb from Vancouver shared this song with us. It is a calming song to sing before telling a story. It works very well as an echo song as well.

Tall trees
Warm fire
Strong wind
Rushing water

I feel it in my body
I feel it in my soul

Kathy – harmony vocals
Ken – piano, guitar, bass

9. Land Of the Silver Birch/My Paddle's Keen and Bright (traditional Canadian)

Another pair of partner songs to sing together or separately.

Land Of the Silver Birch

Land of the silver birch, home of the beaver
Where still the mighty moose wanders at will
Blue lake and rocky shore
I will return once more.

Refrain: Boom didi a da
Boom didi a da
Bo-o-o-o-m

Down in the forest, deep in the lowlands
My heart cries out for thee, hills of the north
Blue lake and rocky shore
I will return once more.

High on a rocky ledge I'll build my wigwam
Close by the water's edge, silent and still
Blue lake and rocky shore
I will return once more.

Kathy – dulcimer, harmony vocals
Ken – tom tom

My Paddle's Keen and Bright

My paddle's keen and bright, flashing with silver
Follow the wild goose flight
Dip dip and swing
Dip dip and swing her back, flashing with silver
Follow the wild goose flight
Dip dip and swing

10. Babushka Baio

A lovely Russian lullaby.

Go to sleep, my darling baby
Babushka baio
See the moon is shining on you
Babushka baio.

I will tell you many stories
If you close your eyes
Go to sleep, my darling baby
Babushka baio.

Ken – mandocello, mandolins, mandola

11. Where Are the Stars?

© Celia Lottridge

This magical rhyme was inspired by a rhyme developed in the American Sign Language Parent-Child Mother Goose Programs. Point to imaginary stars above you for the first two lines, then to your child's eyes and finally, give your" star" a nice hug. This rhyme appears in "Where are the Stars, a Treasury of Interactive Rhymes," published by the Parent-Child Mother Goose Program.

Where are the stars?
There, there
Where are the stars?
There, there
Where are the stars?
There, there
Where is my star?
Right here.

Ken – open piano strings

12. Big Moon Bright Moon (traditional Appalachian)

Sally Jaeger shared this simple lullaby.

Big moon, bright moon,
Shining so very high
Up in the starry sky
Big Moon, bright moon,
Can you see people as tiny as I?

Kathy – dulcimer
Ken – guitar

13. Goes to Sleep © Ken Whiteley SOCAN

Many years ago Ken wrote this song for his son Ben who is now playing bass on this track.

Just like a bear, out in the snow
Goes to sleep
The small prairie dog and the big buffalo
Go to sleep.

Chorus: You know and I know that even the dolphins
And all of the whales of the deep
Birds in the sky
And of course you and I
Go to sleep.

A swan and her young
Stop gliding along
And go to sleep
The long necked giraffe and the lion so strong
Go to sleep.

I know the kangaroos' hopping must stop
And they go to sleep
A snake goes and slithers right under a rock
And goes to sleep.

Ben – stand up bass
Ken – piano, accordion, drums, harmony vocals

14. The Moon is a Pearl
© Carol Ashton SOCAN

The moon is a pearl floating high,
The stars are the diamonds in the night sky.
My babe lies asleep in her dreams she flies,
Past the moon and the stars so bright
Back to her room by the morning light.
Past the moon and the stars so bright,
Back to her room by the morning light.

The sheep's in the meadow , the cow's in the corn,
Where is my babe this early morn?
She sleeps in her cradle and in it she flies,
Past the moon and the stars so bright
Back to her room by the morning light,
Past the moon and the stars so bright,
Back to her room by the morning light.

Ben – stand up bass
Ken – autoharp, harmony vocals

15. Sleep, Small Baby, Sleep

This hopeful rhyme is translated from Hindi. You can rock your baby to the rhythm and unfold her fingers to "butter and bread and sugar" and then fold them in again on the repetition. The rhyme in Hindi can be found in Bounce Me, Tickle Me, Hug Me, published by the Parent-Child Mother Goose Program.

Sleep, small baby, sleep,
You've had butter and bread and sugar to eat.
The butter, the bread, the sugar are gone,
And my baby has gone to sleep.

Ken – sitar-guitar

16. Ho Ho Watanay
(Iroquois/French/English)

Collected and translated into English by Alan Mills.

Ho Ho Watanay
Ho ho Watanay
Ho ho Watanay
Kiyokena Kiyokena

Do do mon petit
Do do mon petit
Do do mon petit
Et bonne nuit, et bonne nuit

Sleep sleep little one
Sleep sleep little one
Sleep sleep little one
Now go to sleep
Now go to sleep.

Ken – piano, frame drum, shakers

17. Everybody's Sleeping © Uncle Ruthie Buell

This gentle song can go on for a long time. Listen to the night sounds with your child and sing about everything that you hear.

The birds are singing all around, the birds are singing all around
Hush up birds, don't make a sound
Everybody's sleeping, everybody's sleeping.

The frogs are croaking all around, the frogs are croaking all around
Hush up frogs, don't make a sound
Everybody's sleeping, everybody's sleeping.

Crickets are chirping all around, crickets are chirping all around
Hush up birds, don't make a sound
Everybody's sleeping, everybody's sleeping.

The dogs are barking all around, the dogs are barking all around
Hush up dogs, don't make a sound
Everybody's sleeping, everybody's sleeping.

The cows are mooing all around, the cow's are mooing all around
Hush up cows, don't make a sound
Everybody's sleeping, everybody's sleeping.

The stars are twinkling all around, the stars are twinkling all around
Twinkle stars without a sound,
Everybody's sleeping, everybody's sleeping.

Anne – fiddle
Chris – harmonica
Debbie – harmony vocals
Ken – nylon stringed guitar, harmony vocals, bass harmonica, crickets

Kathy Reid-Naiman has been making music with children since 1980. She has collaborated with Ken Whiteley to make eight recordings of music that she uses in her parent and child music programs. This is her second collection of songs for the Parent-Child Mother Goose Program. The first, 'A Smooth Road to London Town', was included in the Ontario Government's Newborn Literacy Kit, and was distributed to the parents of newborn babies to promote early literacy.

Kathy frequently presents workshops for teachers, librarians and early childhood providers. She is a member of Mariposa in the Schools and The Children's Music Network.

She lives in Aurora Ontario with her husband Arnie and their dog Falkor. Kathy and Arnie are collectively known as Ragged but Right and their CD 'Down Harmony Road' is available from Merriweather Records Ltd.

Thank You

I want to thank all the wonderful teachers, musicians, librarians, friends and family who have shared their songs and rhymes with me and, through me, you.

Thank you Ken, for your patience as this project expanded and thank you for making this recording sparkle – I am in awe of how you can take any song and create just the right arrangement, you are truly a genius. Thank you Nik, for all that you do to make my recordings sound so good. Thank you David and Lisette, for working so hard to get these recordings out on time; it was a marathon! Thank you to all of the fine musicians who worked on this recording; Anne, Ben, Chris, Debbie, Hannah, Ken, Mary and William. I am so very grateful to The Parent-Child Mother Goose Program for the opportunity to make this recording. Their work has provided a rich experience of using songs and rhymes together for parents and young children across Canada and beyond.

Most of all, thank you Arnie for always being there for me.
