The Parent-Child Mother Goose Program

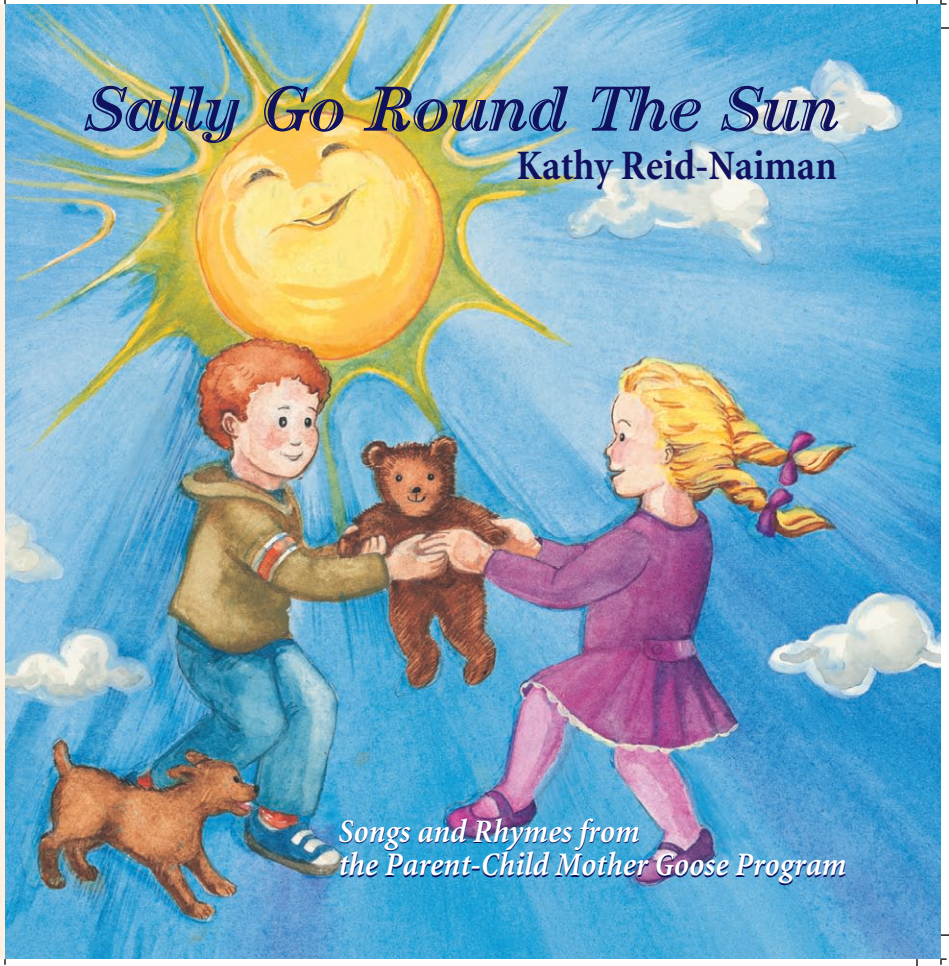

The parents, babies and young children who come to the Parent-Child Mother Goose Program take great joy in learning and sharing rhymes and songs together. 'On Sally Go Round the Sun' you will find many of our favourites for lively times and on 'Sally Go Round the Moon' wonderful lullabies and quiet songs. Other great songs from the program can be found on the CD 'A Smooth Road to London Town'. We hope you will weave these words and melodies into your own family life. Enjoy them by listening to the recording, and when the songs and rhymes are familiar to you, have even more fun singing them and saying them to and with your children. Bedtime, bath time, in the car, at the playground; there are endless possibilities for good times with all of these gems. We have given you a few suggestions for using the rhymes and songs but you will find your own actions and can change the pacing to suit your child and the occasion. Have a wonderful time!

The Parent-Child Mother Goose Program

1. Sally Go Round the Sun traditional British, (verse two © 2007 Kathy Reid-Naiman SOCAN)

This is a simple dance that can be done in a circle holding your baby. Gently lower her on Boom! Gently lift her up on Whee! The first verse of this is the traditional version and stands alone as a fine little dance. Older children can dance holding hands with a parent or a friend. It can also be done as a dance without falling down – instead change directions on 'Boom' and repeat going the other way.

Sally go round the sun
Sally go round the moon
Sally go round the chimney top
Every afternoon…Boom!

Sally go round the moon
Sally go round the stars
Sally go round and round and round
And jump right up to Mars…Whee!

Anne Lindsay – fiddle
Bucky – drums
Dennis – bass
Ken – piano

2. Up and Down the Rocky Road © 2007 Kathy Reid-Naiman

Hold your child on your knees facing you and watch the delight on their face as they sway, smile, giggle and bounce!

Up and down the rocky road
And through the village square
Rode my lady one fine day
Upon her dappled mare
Through the market and the fair
In her silken gown
Swaying, smiling, giggling, laughing (pause after each word)
Bumping up and down

Ken – guitar

3. I Think You're Wonderful © Red Grammer The Madison Corporation

A warm way to begin any program or to sing in the car as you drive along.

Chorus: I think you're wonderful, when somebody says that to me,
I feel wonderful, as wonderful as can be.
It makes me want to say the same thing to somebody new,
And by the way I've been meaning to say
I think you're wonderful too.

When we practice this phrase in the most honest way,
And find something special in someone each day.
We'll lift up the world one heart at a time,
It all starts by saying this one simple line…

Chorus: I think you're wonderful, when somebody says that to me,
I feel wonderful, as wonderful as can be.
It makes me want to say the same thing to somebody new,
And by the way I've been meaning to say
I think you're wonderful too.

When each one of us feels important inside
Loving and giving and glad we're alive
Oh, what a difference we'll make in each day
All because someone decided to say…

Chorus: I think you're wonderful, when somebody says that to me,
I feel wonderful, as wonderful as can be.
It makes me want to say the same thing to somebody new,
And by the way I've been meaning to say
I think you're wonderful too.

And by the way, I've been meaning to say,
I think you're wonderful too!

This could be a knee dandling song or a dance to do while holding your baby.

Dance to your daddy, my little laddie
Dance to your daddy, my little man.
You shall have a fishy in a little dishy
You shall have a fishy when the boat comes in.

Dance to your daddy, my little lassie
Dance to your daddy, my little lamb
You shall have an apple, you shall have a plum
You shall have an apple when the boat comes in.

You shall have a rattle when the boat comes in.

Kathy – dulcimer
Ken – guitars, tambourines, drum

6. Monday Night the Banjo

Children love to hear their own names in a song. You can be inventive when you are making up rhymes for your children's names.

Monday night the banjo, playing on the radio.
I like the radio, and I like "B"
"B" is for Bucky,
Bouncy Bouncy Bucky,
All the children adore him,
Give him a kiss goodnight. (Kiss, Kiss with your fingers)
Sleep tight.

Monday night the banjo, playing on the radio
I like the radio, and I like "J"
"J" is for Justine
Jumpy jumpy Justine
All the children adore her,
Give her a kiss goodnight. (Kiss, Kiss with your fingers)
Sleep tight.

Dancey Dennis
Merry Merry Mary.

Dennis – stand up bass
Bucky – drums
Ken – 6 string banjo

7. This Is the Way Me Father Taught Me* Traditional Irish rhyme

Your child's outstretched arm can be the fiddle, with your hand as the bow. It ends with a tickle just where the elbow bends. Or you can hold your baby in your arms and he can be the fiddle.

This is the way me father taught me
How to play the fiddle:
Here and there and everywhere,
Especially in the middle!

9. Everybody Knows I Love My Toes

© Barbara Allyn SOCAN

This was written as 'Everybody Knows I Love My Toes' but many parent-child groups have adapted it and it is often sung as 'Everybody Knows that I Love Your Toes'.

Everybody knows I love my toes
Everybody knows I love my toes
I love my eyes, my ears, my mouth and my nose
But everybody knows I love my toes.

2. Everybody knows I love my knees

3. Everybody knows I love my hair

4. Everybody knows I love my fingers

6. Everybody knows I love my arms

Bucky – drums
Chris – harmonica
Debbie – vocal harmony
Dennis – double bass
Ken – guitar, vocal harmony

10. Tommy Thumb

If your child is too young to do this alone, you can help find the different fingers, or do it yourself. You can dance your fingers on baby's shoulders, knees, and head then tuck them into baby's armpits.

Tommy Thumb is up and Tommy Thumb is down
Tommy Thumb is dancing all around the town.
Dancing on your shoulders, dancing on your head,
Dancing on your knees, then tuck him into bed.

2. Peter Pointer 3. Middle Man 4. Ruby Ring
5. Baby Finger 6. Finger Family.

Kathy – dulcimer
Ken – guitar, shakers

11. I'm Going to the Woods

You can use your two hands as the little pigs talking to each other or your child's two hands or even feet. Of course you end with a hug and a kiss.

"I'm going to the woods,"
Said this little pig
"What will you do there,?"
Said that little pig
"Find my mother,"
Said this little pig
"And when you find her?"
Said that little pig
"I'll kiss her and kiss her!"
Said this little pig.

12. Here Goes the Rabbit*

traditional Greek rhyme

Hop your fingers up your child's arm, pausing at the elbow bend and ending with a tickle just under the ear.

Here goes the rabbit,
Hoppity, hop,
To drink some water
Sippity, sip.
Where will she find it?
No, not here.
She'll find it under
Baby's ear.

Ken – ukulele

13. Mister Rabbit

This song can entertain a small child for a long time as you pat each part of her body as the words describe it. Older children like to act out the words.

Mister Rabbit, Mister Rabbit your ears' mighty long
Yes my Lawd they're put on wrong

Chorus: Every little soul's gonna shine shine shine
Every little soul's gonna shine shine shine

2. Mister Rabbit, Mister Rabbit, your coat's mighty grey
Yes my Lawd was made that way

3. Mister Rabbit, Mister Rabbit your feet's mighty red
Yes my Lawd I'm almost dead

4. Mister Rabbit, Mister Rabbit your tail's mighty white
Yes my Lawd and I'm a getting out of sight

5. Mister Rabbit, Mister Rabbit, you look mighty thin
Yes my Lawd been cutting through the wind

Arnie – gourd banjo
Ken – harmony vocal

14. One Button Two Buttons adapted © Sally Jaeger SOCAN

Babies can get so wiggly when you want to change a diaper. A song or rhyme like this one can keep them fascinated and still for a few extra moments:

1 button, 2 buttons, 3 buttons, 4!
Changing baby's diapers, like we did before.
4 buttons, 3 buttons, 2 buttons, 1!
Changing baby's diapers, now we're done!

Lots of fun! Nice clean bum!

Bucky – drums
Dennis – bass

15. Button It Up

© Kathy Reid-Naiman SOCAN 2006

You can sing about anything that your child is wearing and your child can name items of clothing, too.

I've got a coat, a warm and woolly coat
And I'm going to button it up (repeat)

Chorus: Button it up, button it up,
I'm going to button it up

I've got a shirt, a pretty purple shirt
And I'm going to button it up (repeat)

Chorus: Button it up, button it up,
I'm going to button it up

I've got some pants, some bright blue pants
And I'm going to pull them right up (repeat)

Chorus: Pull them up, pull them up
And I'm going to pull them right up

I've got some boots, some black buckle boots
And I'm going to buckle them up (repeat)

Chorus: Buckle them up, buckle them up
And I'm going to buckle them up

Bucky – drums
Chris – trumpet
Dennis – electric bass
Ken – tenor banjo

16. Harry Went to Hampstead

A perfect rhyme to say as you and your child are searching for a lost hat or mitts or…

Harry went to Hampstead
Harry lost his hat
Harry's mother says to Harry
"Harry where's your hat?"

17. Put One Foot

© 2006 Kathy Reid-Naiman SOCAN

Dance around in a circle and then fall down – what fun!

Put one foot in front of the other
Stand up straight and stand up tall
Put one foot in front of the other,
Be careful not to fall
Whoops!

Dennis – stand up bass
Bucky – drums

18. The Ponies Are Walking © Kathy Reid-Naiman SOCAN 1998

Do this in a circle and make sure that everyone is going in the same direction.

1. The ponies are walking, they're walking along,
   Walking along, walking along.
   The ponies are walking; they're walking along,
   Whoa! Whoa! Whoa!

2. The ponies are trotting; they're trotting along,
3. The ponies are walking; they're walking along,
4. The ponies are galloping, galloping on,

5. The ponies are walking; they're walking back home,
Walking back home, walking back home.
The ponies are walking; they're walking back home,
To sit back down.

Kathy – harmony vocals
Ken – mandocello, mandolin, mandola

19. Pace Goes the Lady

Your child sits on your lap facing you as you bounce him, first gently, then briskly, then with vigor. At each "Whoa!" you and your child lean way back, away from each other. And, of course, at the end your child "falls," gleefully, between your legs.

Pace goes the lady, the lady, the lady
Pace goes the lady, the lady
Whoa!

Canter goes the gentleman, the gentleman, the gentleman,
Canter goes the gentleman, the gentleman
Whoa!

Gallop goes the huntsman, the huntsman, the huntsman
Gallop goes the huntsman
And tumbles in the ditch!

20. Jarvis to Port Dover © 2003 Kathy Reid-Naiman SOCAN

Jarvis and Port Dover are two small towns in southern Ontario. Bounce your child on your knees facing you so that you can watch the pleasure on his face as he's dropped gently to one side.

While going down a bumpy road
From Jarvis to Port Dover
My wheel got stuck inside a rut
And I went tumbling over! Whoops!
Over, whoops! Over, whoops!
And I went tumbling over, whoops!

Ken – calliope

21. Down By the Banks of the Hanky Panky

Set your baby on one knee and bounce him from one knee to the other.

Down by the banks of the Hanky Panky	(bounce up and down)
Where the bullfrogs jump from bank to bank	(bounce from one knee to the other)
He goes Flip, Flop, Belly-flop	(on "Belly-flop" turn him on his tummy)
Till he missed the lily pad and went 'Kerplop!'	(gently drop him between your legs)

22. Here Is the Sea

You can act this out with your hands, making the waves, then the boat and finally all the fishes swimming away. Or you could help your child do it in the bathtub.

Here is the sea the wavy sea
Here is my boat and here is me
And all the fishes down below
Wiggle their tails
And away they go.

23. Baby Shark

This is an adaptation of a song. It's fun to do with actions that show the size and movements of the sharks.

Baby shark

Mommy shark

Daddy shark

Grampa shark

Gramma shark

Swim deep

Swim fast

Swim away

Bucky – drums
Dennis – electric bass
Kathy – banjo uke
Ken – piano
William – trombone

24. Walk Through the Farmyard

© Carol Ashton

This can be done as a palm tickle or a knee bounce.

Walk through the farmyard, over by the pond
Past the little mice in the old hay mound
Trot down the laneway, see the little cow
Out through the gate and gallop into town!

Ken – 5 string banjo

25. Grampa's Farm Rhyme

Put your child's name in this rhyme. It's fun to chant while walking and, of course, you can change the billygoat to any animal you like. If you do with a circle of children the "Who's next? leads to the next child and his or her name".

Jackson went to Grampa's farm
Billygoat chased him round the barn
Chased him up the apple tree
And this is what he said to me
"I love coffee, I love tea,
I love my friends and my friends love me!"

Who's next? Who's next?

26. Down On Grampa's Farm

Ask your child what animals might be on grampa's farm and what colour they might be.

We're on our way, we're on our way
On our way to grampa's farm
We're on our way, we're on our way
On our way to grampa's farm

Down on grampa's farm there is a little white lamb
Down on grampa's farm there is a little white lamb
The lamb, she makes a sound like this….baaa
The lamb, she makes a sound like this….baaa

2. Down on grampa's farm there is a black and white cow

3. Down on grampa's farm there is a little pink pig

4. Down on grampa's farm there is a little red chicken

5. Down on grampa's farm there is a big black horse

Animal noises – Ken, Kathy, Mary
Kathy – harmony vocals
Ken – guitar, mandola, electric bass, harmony vocals

27. Peck, Peck, Peck Goes the Little Red Hen* Traditional Portuguese rhyme

Tap your finger on your child's palm. Then walk your fingers up her arm. A little tickle in the crook of her arm where the nest is and then run your fingers up to her mouth and pat it gently.

Peck, peck, peck goes the little red hen,
Step, step, step go her feet.
In her nest is an egg for my baby,
An egg for my baby to eat!

28. Shoofly

This circle dance is so simple to do and so satisfying. When you are singing it you can do it much slower than I have done it here and enjoy the babies' look of surprise as they see other babies coming toward them in the middle of the circle.

Shoofly, don't bother me! (circle to the left)
Shoofly, don't bother me!
Shoofly, don't bother me!
Cause I belong to somebody. (repeat while you circle to the right)

I feel, I feel, I feel like a morning star! (go to the middle)
I feel, I feel, I feel like a morning star! (back out)
(repeat)

Arnie – Vega banjo
Kathy – harmony vocals
Ken – guitar, jaw harp, harmony vocals

29. Here's A Little Teacup © 2007 Kathy Reid-Naiman

This fingerplay was inspired by the traditional rhyme 'Here's a cup and here's a cup and here's a cup of tea. Pour a cup and pour a cup and drink it up with me'.

Here's a little teacup make a cup with one hand
A saucer and a pot put other hand under 'cup' then make the saucer into a teapot
Pour some tea pour tea into cup and take a sip pretend to sip
Be careful 'cause it's hot! Stop and blow on cup

Here's a little cookie hold out hand
With sprinkles on the top sprinkle motions
Dunk it slowly in your tea remake the tea cup and dunk the cookie
Then eat it all up! Mmmmm Eat it

30. Mix the Bannock

A northern Alberta version of an old English rhyme. Stir your finger in the child's palm and then, just follow the rhyme!

Mix the bannock,
Stir the bannock
Pat it in the pan
Bake the bannock
Taste the bannock
Covered with strawberry jam.

31. Mama's Little Baby Loves Short'nin' Bread

A good song to sing while making supper or cooking over a camp fire.

Put on the skillet, put on the lid
Mama's gonna bake a little short'nin' bread
That's not all that she can to do,
She can make hot coffee too.

Mama's little baby loves short'nin', short'nin',
Mama's little baby loves short'nin' bread.
Mama's little baby loves short'nin', short'nin',
Mama's little baby loves short'nin' bread.

Two little children, lying in bed
One was sick and the other looked dead
Called for the doctor and the doctor said
Give those children some short'nin' bread.

When those children, sick in bed
Heard that talk about short'nin' bread
Popped up well, to dance and sing
Skipped around and cut the pigeon wing.

Put on the skillet, put on the lid
Mama's gonna bake a little short'nin' bread
That's not all that she can to do,
She can bake hot biscuits too.

32. Sippity Sup, Sippity Sup

Say this rhyme while you are feeding your little child. It's good for a pretend tea party with dolls, too.

Sippity sup, sippity sup
Bread and milk from a china cup
Bread and milk from a bright silver spoon
Made of a piece of the bright silver moon
Sippity sup, sippity sup
Sippity, sippity sup.

33. I Say Thanks a Lot © Kathy Reid-Naiman SOCAN 2006

Sometimes when I am filled with gratitude and joy for the gifts that I am given everyday I just want to say "thank you".

When I wake up in the morning and I see the light, I say thanks a lot
When I'm in my bed at night and the stars are shining bright, I say thanks a lot

Chorus: Thank you, thank you, I say thanks a lot
Thank you, thank you, I say thanks a lot.

For the birds and the bees and the flowers and the trees, I say thanks a lot
For the lakes and the rivers and the deep blue seas, I say thanks a lot.

For the colours of the leaves on a bright fall day, I say thanks a lot
For the snow in winter and the flowers in May, I say thanks a lot.

Bridge: There's so much to be thankful for
I hardly know where to begin
But I'll start right here and I'll say it clear
I say thanks a lot.

For the food that we eat and a place to rest, I say thanks a lot
For my friends and family that I love the best, I say thanks a lot.

A Smooth Road to London Town and Sally Go Round the Moon are also available from The Parent-Child Mother Goose Program and Merriweather Records

Kathy Reid-Naiman has been making music with children since 1980. She has collaborated with Ken Whiteley to make eight recordings of music that she uses in her parent and child music programs. This is her second collection of songs for the Parent-Child Mother Goose Program. The first, 'A Smooth Road to London Town', was included in the Ontario Government's Newborn Literacy Kit, and was distributed to the parents of newborn babies to promote early literacy.

Kathy frequently presents workshops for teachers, librarians and early childhood providers. She is a member of Mariposa in the Schools and The Children's Music Network.

She lives in Aurora Ontario with her husband Arnie and their dog Falkor. Kathy and Arnie are collectively known as Ragged but Right and their CD 'Down Harmony Road' is available from Merriweather Records Ltd.

Thank You

I want to thank all the wonderful teachers, musicians, librarians, friends and family who have shared their songs and rhymes with me and, through me, you.

Thank you Ken, for your patience as this project expanded and thank you for making this recording sparkle – I am in awe of how you can take any song and create just the right arrangement, you are truly a genius. Thank you Nik, for all that you do to make my recordings sound so good. Thank you David and Lisette, for working so hard to get these recordings out on time; it was a marathon! Thank you to all of the fine musicians who worked on this recording; Anne, Anne, Arnie, Bucky, Chris, Debbie, Dennis, Ken, Mary and William. I am so very grateful to The Parent-Child Mother Goose Program for the opportunity to make this recording. Their work has provided a rich experience of using songs and rhymes together for parents and young children across Canada and beyond.

Most of all, thank you Arnie for always being there for me.
