

Since 1980, Kathy has been sharing her love of music with children and their adults in school, library and home settings. She teaches pre-school music at several libraries in Ontario. She teaches workshops to adults who work with children and she has presented keynote addresses and workshops across North America at conferences, libraries and Early Learning Centres.

Although she is known primarily for her work with children she also has had a wide career in adult music and dance.

She is a self taught musician who plays guitar, fiddle, autoharp, ukulele and Appalachian mountain dulcimer.

Kathy lives in Aurora Ontario with her husband Arnie and Maggie Muggins their golden retriever.

Thank You!

Children's music by its very nature is meant to be shared; I am so very grateful to all the parents, teachers, librarians and childcare providers who have supported my music by sharing it with their children. In these times with technology becoming ever present it is so important to keep music in our lives and teach children to love and share it too.

Thank you to Ken not only for producing this, my thirteenth recording but for having strong shoulders when I needed them. Thank you Ellen for good advice and pretty flowers. Thank you Nik for having the patience and expertise to make each recording the best it could be, and thank you Arnie, Ben, Chris, John, Jesse, Ken and Hannah for your wonderful musical contributions.

This recording is dedicated to six people who profoundly affected my life; Mom, Uncle Sam, Uncle Norm, Tam Kearney, Susan Lawrence and Becky Peapples. I will miss you all.

1. When It's Autumn

Tune: traditional lyrics: © "Miss Carole" Stephens

Your fingers can be leaves falling gently from the sky…and then they fall on your head!

There are yellow leaves
There are orange leaves
There are brown and there are red
When it's autumn, when it's autumn
They keep falling on my head!

Ben: bass
Ken: piano

2. The Most Glorious Day

Kathy Reid-Naiman/Ken Whiteley © 2013 SOCAN

I was walking with my dog through a forest on an incredibly beautiful day in November when this song popped into my head.

This is the most glorious day, glorious day that I can remember
This is the most glorious day, glorious day in the month of November.

The sun is shining in a sky of blue
The birds are singing as if they knew that. Chorus

A gentle breeze blows through the pines
It makes me think of summer time. Chorus

The squirrels are chattering in the trees
They sound so happy just like me. Chorus

Ben: bass
Chris: harmonica
Hannah: harmony
Ken: guitar, piano

3. Walk Old Squirrel

This song is from the Georgia Sea Islands. You can adapt the actions to suit your dancers.

Walk old squirrel Eidledum eidledum
Walk old squirrel Eidledum dee.
Walk old squirrel Eidledum eidledum
Walk old squirrel Eidledum dee.

Hop old squirrel
Fly old squirrel
Twirl around
Run old squirrel
Chase that squirrel
Catch that squirrel
Hug that squirrel

Ben: bass, Hannah and Ken: harmony, Ken: guitar, tambourine

4. Grey Squirrel traditional

Children like to act like a squirrel for this song. They go down on their hands and knees and pretend they have a big bushy tail. Sometimes the squirrels that we sing about are blue or pink or green.

Grey squirrel, grey squirrel
Shake your bushy tail
Grey squirrel, grey squirrel
Shake your bushy tail
Pick an acorn with your toes
Wrinkle up your little nose
Grey squirrel, grey squirrel
Shake your bushy tail.

Brown squirrel
Black squirrel
Red squirrel

Ben: bass, Chris: trumpet, Ken: tenor banjo, snare

5. The Gate Swings Open Kevin Mackenzie © Play Press

Kevin Mackenzie has mastered the art of writing fingerplays. This is one of my favourites. With your arms folded in front of you make a gate that swings open from your elbows. Make your fingers run forward for the animals. Climb them up the imaginary tree. Pretend to sleep. Carry them home and fold your arms back together.

The gate swings open and the hens run free
They climb up the branches of the apple tree
They fell asleep from the apples they ate
So carry them home and shut the gate.

The gate swings open and the goats run free
They climb up the branches of the apple tree
They fell asleep from the apples they ate
So carry them home and shut the gate.

The gate swings open and the pigs run free
They climb up the branches of the apple tree
They fell asleep from the apples they ate
So carry them home and shut the gate.

The gate swings open and the cows run free
They climb up the branches of the apple tree
They fell asleep from the apples they ate
So carry them home…carry them home
(it takes a long time to carry a cow)
So carry them home and shut the gate.

Ken: snare drum

6. The Turkey Is A Funny Bird unknown

This is just a silly turkey rhyme that you can act out.

The turkey is a funny bird
His head goes wibble wobble
The only thing that he can say is
"Gobble Gobble Gobble!"

7. The Turkey Song Traditional adapted with additional lyrics © 2013 Kathy Reid-Naiman

This song was so much fun to sing that I decided that I wanted it to be longer so I wrote a few more verses in the style of the Darby Ram…believe it or not!

As I came over yonder hill,
I spied a mighty turkey.
He flapped his wings and he spread his tail,
And his feet looked awful dirty.

Chorus: Fol-link-a-tidy,
Fol-de-link-a-tidy-o,
Fol-link-a-tidy,
And his feet looked awful dirty.

I'm sure he weighed 500 pounds,
Or maybe it was more oh.
He shook the ground when he stamped his feet,
And he trampled down the meadow.

This turkey was full 10 feet long,
From his hind end to his wattle.
Five grown men could ride that bird,
If on him they could straddle.

I tried to catch that great big bird,
I know that he's a prize winner.
But he flapped his wings and away he flew,
And he won't be my dinner.

As I came over yonder hill,
I spied a mighty turkey.
He flapped his wings and he spread his tail,
And his feet looked awful dirty.

Arnie: gourd banjo, Ben: bass, John: fiddle, Kathy: harmony, Ken: guitar, shakers

8. Owl Moon © Bruce O'Brien

Bruce wrote this beautiful song after reading Jane Yolen's book "Owl Moon". I like to do hand gestures with it and remembering the order can be a fun challenge.

Oh you've got to be quiet under a shining Owl Moon.
Oh you've got to be quiet under a shining Owl Moon.
Oh you've got to be quiet,
Under a shining, under a shining, under a shining Owl Moon.

You've got to make your own heat under a shining Owl Moon.
You've got to make your own heat under a shining Owl Moon.
You've got to make your own heat,
And you've got to be quiet,
Under a shining, under a shining, under a shining Owl Moon.

You've got to be brave under a shining Owl Moon.
You've got to be brave under a shining Owl Moon.
You've got to be brave,
You've got to make your own heat,
And you've got to be quiet,
Under a shining, under a shining, under a shining Owl Moon.

You've got to have hope under a shining Owl Moon.
You've got to have hope under a shining Owl Moon.
You've got to have hope,
You've got to be brave,
You've got to make your own heat,
And you've got to be quiet,
Under a shining, under a shining, under a shining Owl Moon.

John: fiddle
Ken: piano

9. I Have A Jack-O' Lantern unknown

Hold out one hand with fingers curled inward and thumb up – this is the pumpkin. Make a silly grin, show the pumpkin again and then put your index finger from your other hand up through the bottom of the pumpkin…this is the candle.

I have a Jack-o'-lantern
He has a silly grin
I have a Jack-o'-lantern
With a candle in.

10. Jack O' Lantern unknown

Thank you Margaret Hooton for introducing me to this song.

Jack o' Lantern, Jack o' Lantern
What a beautiful sight
As you sit here by my window
Looking out at the night.
You were once a sturdy pumpkin
Growing on a curly vine
Now you are my Jack o' Lantern
Let your bright candle shine.

Ken: mando cello, mandola, mandolin, autoharp, harmony

11. Old Woman All Skin And Bones

There are many versions of this old song. You could make it longer or shorter or scarier!

There was an old woman all skin and bones…
whoo ooh ooh ooh
She lived out by the old churchyard…
whoo ooh ooh ooh
One night she went to take a walk…
whoo ooh ooh ooh
She walked down by the old churchyard…
whoo ooh ooh ooh
She saw some bones a lying around…
whoo ooh ooh ooh
She thought that she should sweep them up…
whoo ooh ooh ooh
She went back home to get a broom…
whoo ooh ooh ooh
She went to the cupboard to get the broom…
whoo ooh ooh ooh
She opened the door and…BOO!

Ben: bowed bass
Ken: national guitar, organ

12. Hallowe'en Counting Rhyme

Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2013 SOCAN

1 little ghost,
2 little bats,
3 little witches, how about that?
4 little cats with yellow eyes,
5 little devils, what a big surprise!

6 little monsters,
7 little gnomes,
8 little skeletons shaking their bones.
9 little scarecrows stuffed with straw,
10 black crows go Caw Caw Caw!

John: fiddle
Ken: percussion and caws

13. Heigh Ho Hallowe'en's Here

Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2013 SOCAN

The second verse, from an unknown source, was the basis for this song. It really needed more verses, so I wrote them.

It's Hallowe'en time and I suppose,
We should put on our masks and dressup clothes,
We'll have a party and everybody knows,
Heigh Ho Hallowe'ens here.

Chorus: Heigh Ho, Heigh Ho,
Heigh Ho Hallowe'ens here.

Theres one little two little three little witches,
Flying over hedges, gliding over ditches,
Sliding down moonbeams without any hitches
Heigh Ho Hallowe'ens here. Chorus

Theres one little two little three little ghosts,
Flying through the air and landing on the lamp posts.
Giggling and laughing's what they like the most,
Heigh Ho Hallowe'ens here. Chorus

Theres one little two little three little bats,
Wearing black cloaks and silly hats,
Flitting all around like acrobats,
Heigh Ho Hallowe'ens here. Chorus

Ben: bass
Chris: trumpet
Ken: guitar, harmony

14. Five Little Pumpkins unknown

A classic Hallowe'en fingerplay.

Five little pumpkins sitting on a gate.
The first one said, "Oh my its getting late".
The second one said, "There are witches in the air".
The third one said, "But we don't care".
The fourth one said, "Let's run and run and run".
The fifth one said, "I'm ready for some fun!"
Then "Whoo" went the wind and out went the light,
And the five little pumpkins rolled out of sight.

Ken: srutti box, piano strings

15. Roll That Pumpkin Down To Town

P. Zeitlin/A. Barlin Publisher: Bullfrog Ballades c/o Morning Music Limited (tune; traditional)

Pretend to carve a Jack-o'-lantern while you sing this song.

Roll that pumpkin down to town,
Roll that pumpkin down to town,
Roll that pumpkin down to town,
Its almost Hallowe'en.

First you cut the top right off

Scoop the seeds from deep within

Then cut out a silly grin

Then cut out 2 spooky eyes

Now cut out a great big nose

Put a candle deep within

Roll that pumpkin down to town

Arnie: banjo
Ben: bass
John: fiddle
Kathy: harmony
Ken: guitar

16. The Hallowe'en Farm

Traditional adapted Kathy Reid-Naiman
© 2013 SOCAN

Sing about the costumes that the children are wearing…a princess with a crown, a fireman with a hose…

We're on our way, we're on our way
On our way to the Hallowe'en farm
We're on our way, we're on our way
On our way to the Hallowe'en farm

Down on the Hallowe'en farm
There is a little white ghost
Down on the Hallowe'en farm
There is a little white ghost
The ghost, she makes a sound like this…boo
The ghost, she makes a sound like this…boo

2. There is a little black cat

3. There is a witch on a broom

4. There is a little white skeleton

17. I'm A Scarecrow Tall

Kathy Reid-Naiman arranged and adapted by Ken Whiteley © 2013 SOCAN

Act out the motions.

I'm a scarecrow tall with my big straw hat,
I can wave my hands like this and that.
I can dance around and I can jump and twirl,
I'm the finest scarecrow in the whole wide world!

I'm a scarecrow tall in my overalls,
I can wave my hands to one and all.
I can dance around and I can jump and twirl,
I'm the finest scarecrow in the whole wide world!

Ken: guitar, percussion, washtub, bass, harmony

18. Tigers Are Sleeping

Kathy Reid-Naiman © 2006 SOCAN

Although this song is not really an autumn song, it does lend itself to costume and play-acting.

Tigers are sleeping in the jungle,
Tigers are sleeping on the ground.
Like little kittens with their mommies,
Purring and snoring oh so sound.

Now they are stirring stretching scratching,
Rolling and tumbling, falling down.
Now they are playing, jumping pouncing,
Now they are running all around.

Running running, tigers are running,
Running running all around!

Kathy: tenor ukulele
Ken: guitar, vibraphone, bass

19. I Shut The Door

Lyrics: Anonymous/Tune: Debbie Carroll
© 2004 SOCAN

The spooky tune and the squeaky door are a great combination for Hallowe'en. I wonder what is behind that door? If it is something nice, leave it open for a while but if it is scary… shut it quickly.

I shut the door
And I lock it tight
I put the key right out of sight
I find the key
To open the door
And I turn and I turn,
And I turn some more,
And then I open the door.

Ben: bass
John: fiddle
Ken: national guitar, accordion, snare

20. Creepy Crawly Spiders

© 2000 Karen Cartmill

A little tickle written for Karen's daughter.

Creepy crawly spiders,
Crawling up your back,
Crawling on your head,
They want to have a snack.
A little nibble here, and
A little nibble there,
Creepy crawly spiders,
Nibbling everywhere.

21. There's A Spider On The Floor

Words and music by Bill Russell © 1976 Éditions Egos Anonymous. All rights reserved.

A long, long tickle…from the tips of your toes to the top of your head!

1. There's a spider on the floor, on the floor,
   There's a spider on the floor, on the floor,
   Who could ask for anything more
   Than a spider on the floor?
   There's a spider on the floor on the floor.
2. There's a spider on my toe, on my toe, X2
   How I wish that he would go, that old spider on my toe.
3. There's a spider on my leg, on my leg, X2
   And he's really really big, this old spider on my leg.
4. There's a spider on my arm, on my arm, X2
   I won't do him any harm.
5. There's a spider on my neck, on my neck, X2
   Now I'm a great big wreck!
6. There's a spider on my head, on my head, X2
   There's a spider on my head, how I wish I stayed in bed!

   But he jumped off…[start over again]

John: fiddle (pizzicato)
Ken: guitar, bass harmonica

22. Brush Your Teeth

Raffi and Louise Cullen Nettwerk One Music (Canada) Ltd.

After eating so much candy on Hallowe'en, brushing your teeth is a great idea!

When you wake up in the morning its a quarter to one,
And you want to have a little fun
You brush your teeth ch ch ch ch!

When you wake up in the morning its a quarter to two,
And you want to find something to do

When you wake up in the morning its a quarter to three,
Your humming a tune – fiddle dee dee

When you wake up in the morning its a quarter to four,
You think you hear a knock at the door

When you wake up in the morning its a quarter to five,
You just can't wait to come alive

When you wake up in the morning its a quarter to six,
Your mind starts playing silly tricks

When you wake up in the morning its a quarter to seven,
You think you see some stars up in heaven

When you wake up in the morning its a quarter to eight,
You look at the clock and say "I'm late!"

Hannah and Ken: harmony
Kathy and Ken: banjo ukes
Ken: sand Blocks

23. When The Spirit Says unknown

Although there is nothing in the song suggesting Hallowe'en, the minor key and the idea of spirits flying through the air on Hallowe'en night are a good fit. This song invites you to play with your imagination…do whatever the spirit tells you to do.

We're going to sing when the spirit says sing,
We're going to sing when the spirit says sing,
When the spirit says sing,
We're going to sing right along,
We're going to sing when the spirit says sing.

Clap
Sway
Stamp
Jump
Twirl
Dance
Stop!

Ben: bass
Chris: trumpet
Hannah and Ken: harmonies
Ken: guitar, organ, drum, red backed boinger

24. I Say Thanks A Lot

Words and music by Kathy Reid-Naiman
© 2006 SOCAN

Sometimes when I am filled with gratitude and joy for the gifts that I am given everyday, I just want to say "thank you".

When I wake up in the morning and I see the light,
I say thanks a lot.
When I'm in my bed at night and the stars,
Are shining bright, I say thanks a lot.

Chorus: Thank you, thank you, I say thanks a lot.
Thank you, thank you, I say thanks a lot.

For the birds and the bees and the flowers and,
The trees, I say thanks a lot.
For the lakes and the rivers and the deep blue seas,
I say thanks a lot.

For the colours of the leaves on a bright fall day,
I say thanks a lot.
For the snow in winter and the flowers in May,
I say thanks a lot.

Bridge: There's so much to be thankful for
I hardly know how to begin
But I'll start right here and I'll say it clear
I say thanks a lot.

For the food that we eat and a place to rest,
I say thanks a lot.
For my friends and family that I love the best,
I say thanks a lot.
